in response to a male in a fight with a female and saying he wanted to kill himself. Officers made contact with the male who was initially compliant, however, he eventually started to fight with officers. During the fight, the male struck Officer Elsman in the head. The male was later found to have three small packages containing a brown tar-like substance which tested presumptive positive for heroin, and a large cloudy crystal which tested presumptive positive for methamphetamine. The male was also found to have three felony warrants.

Northeast Area Command...

- In January, Detective L. Neil was called out to a DWI Officer who was shot at multiple times. The officer was attempting to conduct a traffic stop when the passenger of the vehicle started firing rounds towards the officer. After the vehicle crashed, both occupants fled on foot. The driver was taken into custody under a residence but the passenger/shooter was able to get away. Detective Neil worked closely with the Investigative Support Unit to get the shooter identified and he was taken into custody a few days later. The driver and passenger were both charged with aggravated assault on a police officer, aggravated fleeing from a law enforcement officer, unlawful taking of a motor vehicle and conspiracy.

- On January 18, Officer M. Miranda along with other officers were dispatched to a male mental health patient who had fled from his group home. It was reported that the male subject had a broken piece of glass in his hand and had already cut his arm. Officers located the male subject. Officer M. Miranda and the other officers talked to the subject and eventually calmed him down. They were able to talk him into an ambulance where he was transported to the hospital.

- On January 9, Officer D. Sanchez was dispatched to a residential burglary in progress. While in route, the caller advised that the offenders had entered a vehicle and were leaving the area. The Air Support Unit was available and began tracking the vehicle. The vehicle drove around the city, entering all area commands and eventually drove to a home in the Foothills Area Command. Officer D. Sanchez confirmed there had been a residential burglary at the home. Officers with the Foothills and Northeast Area Commands established a perimeter of the home. Northeast Impact detectives arrived on scene and... assisted with the perimeter and the investigation. Several people exited the house and were taken into custody. Two males were positively identified as the suspects that had broken into the house. Both males were charged with several felonies.

- On January 23, Officer E. Burchell was dispatched to a vandalism call. As Officer E. Burchell arrived, he was flagged down by a citizen regarding a suspicious vehicle in the parking lot. Upon further investigation, he learned the vehicle was stolen. Two people were found in the immediate area in connection with the stolen vehicle. Both were arrested on receiving and transferring a stolen vehicle.

- On January 12, Officers W. Velasquez and T. LaForce responded to a report that a male was suicidal and was firing shots from his mobile home in an attempt to have officers shoot him. Contact was made with an individual who was willfully inside the mobile home with the suicidal subject. They both eventually walked outside together and the suicidal male was transported to a hospital for a mental health evaluation. His weapons and ammunition were tagged into evidence for safe keeping.

Foothills Area Command...

- On January 14, Officers T. Sayamontry, N. Halsey, C. Adams, and Sergeant W. Young were dispatched to a report of suspicious activity at a residence. Comments on the call stated the trunk to a vehicle was open and there were broken windows to the residence. The caller advised the residence was also known for drug activity. Officer Sayamontry ran the homeowner’s information through the National Crime Information Center (NCIC) and it showed he had an outstanding felony warrant for murder. Contact was made at the residence and officers confirmed the male with the warrant was inside. The male refused to exit the residence and eventually SWAT units were called to assist. SWAT units were able to take the male into custody.

- On January 19, Officer L. Garcia was dispatched to a call where a neighbor stated he observed a man breaking into a home which had been red tagged by the city. Officers established a perimeter and were able to get the offender to come out of the home without incident. The suspect was taken into custody and later booked for breaking and entering. He was also found to have a felony warrant for burglary. The suspect was also a known property crime offender in the Foothills Area Command.

- On January 5, Officers J. Mares, G. Doose and D. Lucero responded to a suspicious person call. Comments on the call stated the caller’s son was trying to break into the caller’s home. As officers conducted their investigation, they realized the caller was committing child abuse by hitting the three children in the house with a broom handle. The caller was arrested and the children were placed with a family member with the assistance of the Children, Youth, and Families Department (CYFD). The son was not located and had not made entry into the home.

- On January 26, Recruit Officer C. Franco and Officer Jaramillo were dispatched to a possible residential burglary in progress. Officers arrived and made contact with several subjects inside the residence. The subjects were ordered out of the residence, but only one of the subjects complied and exited the rear of the house. The other two subjects opened the garage door and attempted to exit the house. Officer Jaramillo contacted the subjects as they exited the residence and took both of the subjects into custody. Officers also discovered the vehicle parked in front of the house was stolen. All three subjects were arrested for breaking and entering. The subjects had been camping out inside the residence and the homeowner advised that no one had permission to be in the home.

- On January 8, Detective Burton was dispatched to assist field officers with a home invasion. The victim was in the bathroom when she heard knocking at the front door. Once she got to the hallway, the front door was kicked open and a female, who the victim recognized, entered the residence followed by another male and female. The victim confronted the three individuals, asking why they were in the house and one offender ran towards her, pushed her to the ground and began to hit her. The offenders then stole televisions and a laptop. The victim grabbed a telephone, ran to the bathroom and called police. Through her investigation, Detective Burton was able to identify the offenders and track one to her residence. The offender refused to exit the residence and eventually SWAT was activated. One offender was taken into custody and booked on the charges of aggravated burglary, conspiracy and larceny (over $500). Arrest warrants were obtained for the other two offenders.
Aviation...

- On January 18, Officer A. Hooee responded to the rental car facility in response to an embezzled vehicle report. Officer Hooee investigated an embezzlement of a vehicle in which there were two people on the rental agreement. The male individual on the agreement was present and stated the female (work friend) failed to return the vehicle. Officer Hooee obtained all the necessary information needed to forward to the Southeast Impact Team.
- On January 24, Officer R. Rodriguez was dispatched to a vehicle that rammed through a toll booth gate. Officer Rodriguez identified the driver and issued non-traffic citation for criminal damage to property and falsely obtaining services.

FIELD SERVICES BUREAU-WEST

Valley Area Command...

- On January 12, Officer A. Herpolsheimer and other officers were dispatched to a domestic violence call with forced entry. Upon arrival, Air Support advised a subject had fled out the back when officers entered the front. The subject was identified as the offender and had barricaded himself inside a large shed. Officers established a perimeter and through negotiations, the offender surrendered without incident. The offender was charged with domestic violence, battery, false imprisonment, and interference with communications.
- On January 27, Officers A. Herpolsheimer and H. Sennett were dispatched to a commercial burglary in progress. Upon arrival, they observed a subject inside damaging property. Officers established a perimeter and requested a K-9 unit and additional officers. Officers negotiated with the subject which resulted in a peaceful surrender. The subject was charged with commercial burglary.
- On January 14, Officer C. Willsey responded to a family dispute that involved a caller stating she had been choked by her boyfriend. Officer Willsey conducted an investigation and concluded the offender should be charged with kidnapping. It was believed the offender was possibly still at the motel but upon checking the room, he was not present. While Officer Willsey continued to work with the victim, Sergeant M. Reeder located the offender near the northwest end of the property. He was taken into custody and booked on the kidnapping charge.
- On January 19, Officers B. Melendrez and R. Alderete were dispatched to a disturbance. According to the call, a male subject had contacted 911 to advise that his girlfriend was acting strange and had armed herself with a handgun. As officers arrived, they discovered the female subject was still armed and in the company of her small child. Additional resources were requested and officers established a perimeter after safely removing the male caller. Officers made announcements via a public address system and safely removed the female subject and her small child without incident. She was charged with multiple felony charges.
- On January 20, Officers D. White and A. Sampang were dispatched to a disturbance call where a subject had tried to break into a residence. Officer White arrived on scene and established a perimeter. The subject was located and arrested for breaking and entering. Officer White also discovered multiple stolen vehicles on an adjacent property related to this incident. Several subjects were identified and another subject was taken into custody on a felony warrant.
- On January 6, Officer Acosta and Sergeant Ingram were dispatched to a local bank in response to a priority one forgery incident. Information from the bank teller and witness was that a male subject was attempting to cash a check worth $1,000 and was still in the lobby. Officer Acosta and Sergeant Ingram detained the male offender. The male attempted to conceal his identity using someone else’s personal information and was not cooperative with the police investigation. The offender’s true identity was discovered through tattoo recognition and he was found to have an outstanding felony warrant for his arrest. The offender was booked on the charges related to the fraud and warrant.

Southwest Area Command...

- On January 3, Officer Garcia responded to an auto theft call. The vehicle was equipped with an electronic tracking system. Officers Vallejos and Garcia tracked the vehicle and observed the offender in the vehicle. Upon contact, the offender fled on foot and hid under a trailer. A perimeter was established and a police service dog was used to apprehend the offender. A second stolen vehicle was recovered at the same location.
- On January 4, officers were dispatched to a suspicious vehicle call. The caller advised of a female slumped over and could not tell if she was conscious or breathing. Upon arrival, officers observed a small child in the vehicle with the female. The vehicle was reported stolen and officers took the female into custody. Officers advised they had to cover the child with a blanket because it was cold outside and he did not have a jacket or shoes. Officers also observed several hypodermic needles and a small plastic bag with residue, later learned to be heroin residue, lying on the mother’s lap. The mother was booked and charged with receiving and transferring a motor vehicle as well as child abuse.

• On January 2, Officers Baca and Martinez were flagged down by a male who stated he had just been threatened at gun point. Further investigation indicated that an attempted armed robbery had taken place. The victim indicated the offender was walking a block away. Officer Baca contacted the male and he was taken into custody without incident and later booked for aggravated assault with a deadly weapon.

• On January 4, Officer Hinson and Cravens were dispatched to a suspicious vehicle parked on the south side of the business. Upon arrival, officers located the vehicle and observed a male asleep on the driver’s side. Officers made contact with subject. The male made a conscious effort to conceal his lower midsection and could not produce any form of identification. Officers instructed the subject to keep his hands up at all times for safety purposes and, as he raised both arms, Officer Hinson noticed a revolver lying across his waist. Officer Hinson took possession of the weapon and alerted Officer Cravens that the subject was armed.

• On January 31, Officer R. Jones was dispatched to a disturbance call. Comments on the call indicated a male subject went inside a fast food restaurant to complain about multiple subjects who were drunk and trying to hug him. When Officer Jones arrived on scene, the subjects from the call were no longer present. However, he was flagged down at a bus stop and a concerned citizen stated a man had brandished a knife to multiple people at the bus stop. Contact was made with the subject and he stated he did have a knife which he needs for protection. A search of the subject through the National Crime Information Center (NCIC) revealed he had an outstanding misdemeanor warrant.

• On January 20, Detective Zambrano obtained an arrest warrant for a suspect and her boyfriend who had planned to kill an elderly woman and steal property from her home. The female suspect had struck the elderly woman with a pipe in the head and stole property. The victim was able to call police for help. Detective Zambrano identified the suspects and took the female subject into custody where she admitted to attempting to kill the elderly woman. A search warrant was obtained for her cell phone. The warrant provided access to the text message conversations between the female subject and her boyfriend indicating they were planning to kill the woman and sell her property for cash.

Northwest Area Command...

• On January 16, Officers J. Montoya and S. Saavedra were dispatched to subjects possibly using narcotics behind a dumpster. The subjects were already gone when officers arrived. Employees at a business had taken pictures of the suspects and the suspects were located nearby. Officers contacted the subjects and one of them was found to have a misdemeanor warrant for his arrest. Officers searched his backpack and located a small pill bottle with methamphetamine inside it. The offender was arrested for possession of a controlled substance and his warrant.

• On January 25, Officer Saavedra was dispatched to a local business in response to an armed robbery. Upon arrival, Officer Saavedra contacted a store employee and he stated he was stocking the shelves when a male came into the store and pulled out a knife and held it down to his side. Soon afterwards, a female walked into the store, took a tub of protein powder and left the store followed by the male with the knife. The offenders got into two different vehicles and left the area. The store employee got the license plate of one of the vehicles. Later that night, officers tracked down one of the offender’s vehicle. The store employee provided a positive identification of both offenders.

• On January 15, a call was received from a local mall as a potential active shooter event. Officers responded to the mall and the first five officers entered the mall as an active shooter response team. Officers M. Knaub and G. Candelaria conducted an investigation of the event. With coordination of a Bernalillo County Sheriff’s Office supervisor and direction from Sergeant L. Middleton, officers searched the mall. While on scene, officers received conflicting stories that the outstanding female might have fired multiple shots. Officers were able to ascertain that she did not fire any shots. After the mall was cleared and deemed safe, Officers M. Knaub and G. Candelaria determined that an unidentified female had walked into the mall with a firearm after her boyfriend attempted to commit a robbery at a jewelry store. The male was taken into custody by security and the female entered the mall pointing a firearm at a security guard in an attempt to have her boyfriend released. The female pointed the firearm at the mall security guard but never fired the weapon. Officers M. Knaub and G. Candelaria arrested the male for a felony warrant and attempted robbery.

- In January, a stolen vehicle was located at a gas station. Two subjects were detained and arrested. Auto Theft responded and concluded the investigation. The male driver was booked and the female was found to have seven active felony warrants.
- On January 8, officers were dispatched to an individual stating that a male pointed a gun at her. Officers made contact with the victim and she was crying and in distress. The victim stated she was driving when she observed a vehicle driving adjacent to her and attempting to match her speed. The victim stated when she looked over at the vehicle, she observed a male wearing a black “hoodie” pointing what she perceived to be a firearm at her. The victim stated she was in fear for her life and believed the suspect was going to shoot her. While officers were interviewing the victim, Officer Knaub located the vehicle with the license plate number and description provided by the victim. Officers transported the victim to the scene for a field identification. She positively identified the suspect.

SPECIAL SERVICES BUREAU
Special Operations Division...
Tactical
- In January, the K-9 Unit responded to 179 calls for service and were called out 151 times. The K-9 Unit conducted 82 building searches and 21 area searches. The K-9 Unit responded to seven SWAT activations.
- In January, Officers M. Jones and L. McPeek completed the Tactical K-9 testing process with passing scores. These officers are attending the Alderhorst Basic Handler Course in California.
- On December 5, the K-9 Unit apprehended an auto-theft suspect that fled from officers. Officers established a perimeter and the suspect surrendered on announcements.
- On January 3, the K-9 Unit conducted an area search for a subject that fled from a stolen vehicle. The subject was located and apprehended by the K-9 Unit.
- On January 11, the K-9 Unit assisted the Gang Unit with the apprehension of two subjects wanted for felony warrants. The subjects were taken into custody without incident.
- On January 21, the K-9 Unit conducted an area search with SWAT. The area search was in reference to a subject who shot at police officers when they tried to conduct a traffic stop. One subject was located without incident.
- In January, SWAT conducted nine tactical operations.
- On January 9, SWAT was called to a residence in response to a female subject barricaded inside the house. The female had recently committed a home invasion where she battered the homeowner. She also had an outstanding felony arrest warrant for a similar crime. After several tactics, the female exited the residence using a back exit. She made contact with Crisis Negotiation Team personnel and after screaming at them, she reentered the house. Again, after several additional tactics, the female exited out the front of the residence where she became confrontational with entry officers through the use of foul language and concealing one of her hands. She was eventually taken into custody. Entry officers conducted a safety sweep of the residence to secure it for investigating detectives.
- On January 2, The Bomb Squad responded to a homemade explosives lab. A male subject was conducting test detonations in the parking lot of an apartment complex when field officers were called. Inside his apartment, he was actively boiling hydrogen peroxide and sulfuric acid to make them stronger. He admitted to officers he was making triacetone-triperoxide (TATP). TATP is a powerful and sensitive high explosive commonly used by terrorist groups throughout the world, most recently used in the suicide bombings in Paris and Belgium last year. The suspect also admitted to having some inside his backpack. The Bomb Squad dismantled the lab and located acetone, peroxide, and battery acid. These are the three chemicals necessary for making TATP. All the items were countercharged outside due to the explosion risk of transporting them. The Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives was on scene and will submit a case to the United States Attorney.

% change is based upon the 2016 time-frame compared to the average of the previous 3 years for the same time-frame.

The green represents numbers that are highly statistically significant. It denotes that there were less than average incidents of the particular crime. The amount is over 2 standard deviations away from the mean (toward the far outer portion of the tails of a bell-shaped curve).

The yellow represents numbers that are highly statistically significant. It denotes that there were more than average incidents of the particular crime. The amount is over 2 standard deviations away from the mean (toward the far outer portion of the tails of a bell-shaped curve).
