

Albuquerque Police Department Monthly Report December 2016

Richard J. Berry
Mayor

Gorden E. Eden, Jr.
Chief of Police

FIELD SERVICES BUREAU-EAST

Southeast Area Command...

- In December, Officer Carlson received two letters of appreciation from the community. The first letter was from a motorist who wanted to thank Officer Carlson for stopping to assist in changing their flat tire. The second letter was from the director of the Veterans Memorial Park who wished to express his appreciation for Officer Carlson's assistance during the Veterans Day ceremonies at the park.
- On December 4, officers were dispatched to a vandalism call. A male subject was seen on surveillance video breaking numerous windows and display cases with a baseball bat. Officers located and took the male into custody. Over $30,000 worth of damage was caused.
- On December 10, Officer Wolffbrandt was honored by the Mayor as Hero of the Week. Officer Wolffbrandt had responded to a burglary call in September in which a 12 year-old child's bicycle had been stolen on her birthday. Officer Wolffbrandt purchased a new bicycle for the child using his own money.
- On December 12, officers were notified that an individual was following their stolen vehicle. Officers located the stolen vehicle and a high risk traffic stop was conducted. The female driver was taken into custody and the vehicle was confirmed to be stolen and was returned to the owner.
- On December 15, Officer Haugh was on patrol in an area where stolen vehicles were routinely stripped and dumped. Officer Haugh conducted a license plate inquiry on a vehicle and it was reported stolen. Officer Haugh with the assistance of other officers contacted and detained three subjects that were observed around the stolen vehicle. Officer Haugh conducted interviews and subsequently arrested the individual observed in the driver's seat of the stolen vehicle.
- On December 17, Officers Elsmann and Johnson were dispatched on a forgery call. Officers contacted a female who was trying to use another female's identity to open a line of credit. The female admitted her true identity and was found to be in possession of numerous rental car keys, mail, credit cards, and Postmaster keys. It was determined that Northwest Impact detectives and the Organized Crime Unit were trying to locate this female for other crimes.
- On December 22, Officers Rahimi and Vigil responded to a call of a male found unresponsive on the floor of his bathroom. When Officer Rahimi arrived, he secured the scene for rescue and took over cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) from one of the family members. Officer Rahimi continued CPR until rescue arrived and took over.

Northeast Area Command...

- On December 9, Officers Miranda and Verbeck were dispatched to a caller threatening to kill herself. The caller constantly moved and repeatedly called 911 from various locations. Officers Miranda and Verbeck were persistent in their search. They located the subject and got her the help she needed.
- On December 10 and 12, Lieutenant Burke participated in Operation Hope and Cops for Kids. Operation Hope, coordinated by Police Chaplain Ann Montoya, had officers delivering food boxes to families. Through the support of a local retailer and the community, hundreds of donated toys were handed out to children and families within the city. Cops for Kids provided a day of fun for two young boys as they were picked up in a patrol unit and taken for breakfast. This was followed up with shopping, lunch and games at a local entertainment center.
- The 2016 Holiday Tactical Plan was conducted from November 24 through December 31. The tactical plan included the Northeast Area Command, various other police units and the Real Time Crime Center (RTCC). The goal was to provide high visibility patrols at the Northeast shopping centers and reduce crime through crime prevention, education and enforcement.
- In December, the Crime Free Multi-Housing Coordinator attended a safety social at a Northeast apartment complex. This complex has been proactive in keeping their property safe, to include conducting annual safety socials. Several residents at the meeting volunteered to become building captains.
- On December 21, Officer Simpson was dispatched on a residential burglary call. The homeowner reported that her children's Christmas gifts and other personal property were stolen. The victim was a single mother and local teacher. Officer Simpson made arrangements with the department's Public Information Officer to raise public awareness on her situation. The news media assisted which resulted in donations for the family.
- On December 26, Officers Olivas and Valdez were dispatched on a domestic violence call.

The victim advised that she arrived home and discovered her ex-boyfriend and another male in her apartment. She said her ex-boyfriend had also stolen her vehicle a few days prior. Officers arrived and took one of the males into custody. Officers got the male to tell them where the vehicle was. The vehicle was recovered and returned to the victim. The male was arrested and booked into the Metropolitan Detention Center.

Foothills Area Command...

- On December 1, Officer Knipprath was dispatched on a shoplifting call. A female was taken into custody and found to have outstanding felony warrants. The female was also using a false identity. She was booked into the Metropolitan Detention Center for fraud, forgery, identity theft and the outstanding felony warrants.
- On December 5, officers were dispatched to a report of an active shooter. Officers arrived on scene and secured the area. Inside the residence, officers found three children and an adult male deceased from gunshot wounds. An adult female was also found suffering from a gunshot wound and was taken to the hospital by ambulance. The adult male had shot the three children and their mother before turning the gun on himself. Homicide detectives took over the investigation.
- On December 8, Officer Ramos attempted to stop a vehicle when it fled. Officer Ramos disengaged and called out the direction of travel and description of the vehicle. Sergeant Weidner observed the vehicle as it stalled on a city street. As Sergeant Weidner engaged his emergency equipment, the driver jumped out and fled on foot as the vehicle continued to roll down the street. Officer Ramos pursued the driver on foot while Sergeant Weidner stayed with the vehicle. After a foot pursuit, Officer Ramos caught and detained the driver. She was found to have an outstanding felony warrant and booked. Officer Ramos contacted the owner who confirmed her vehicle was stolen. Officer Ramos coordinated charges with the District Attorney's Office of receiving and transferring a stolen vehicle.
- On December 11, Officer Mares was dispatched on a domestic dispute call. Officer Mares contacted the caller and established kidnapping charges and probation violation warrants for the boyfriend. Foothills officers established a perimeter around the apartment and the subject opened the door briefly then locked himself in the apartment. Officers backed away and SWAT was called out. Shortly after SWAT arrived, the offender exited the apartments and was taken into custody without further incident.

- On December 22, Officers Hurtado and Higgs responded to a burglary in progress. As officers arrived, two individuals were leaving the house. The subjects were apprehended and the victim's property was recovered. The subjects' vehicle was linked to multiple other residential burglaries in the Foothills Area Command.
- On December 27, Officers Daffron and Ramos were dispatched to a call where two children were unable to locate their mother. The children were eight and four years-old. Officers arrived and found the mother highly intoxicated sitting in another apartment. The mother could hardly stand and was incapable of taking care of the children. Officers made contact with the children's grandmother who came to attend to the children. The mother was summoned for abandonment and cruelty to children and the Children, Youth and Families Department (CYFD) will conduct a follow-up investigation.

Aviation...

- On December 7, officers were dispatched to the third level of the Albuquerque Sunport on a call of a man down. Field Training Officer Ryan and Trainee Officer Marney responded. Upon arrival, they found a female, who identified herself as a nurse, attending to an unconscious male who was not breathing. The officers attached an Automated External Defibrillators (AED) to the patient and initiated CPR. Once Emergency Medical Technicians arrived, they took over medical treatment and transported the patient to the hospital. Days later, Officer Ryan received an email from the patient's family thanking him and Officer Marney for their actions.

FIELD SERVICES BUREAU-WEST Valley Area Command...

- In December, officers were dispatched to a disturbance call where a female advised she was being held against her will. Officers arrived and observed female in a bedroom motioning for help and pointing to an adjacent room. Officer Sennett made contact with the female who indicated she had been battered and held against her will by her soon to be husband. Officer Sennett located the offender in the living room lying on a couch with a gun in his hand. Officer Sennett de-escalated the situation and took the offender into custody without incident.

- On December 5, Officer Martinez was dispatched to an apartment on fire and a subject possibly armed with a gun. Officer Martinez secured the scene so the Albuquerque Fire Department could put the fire out. Officer Martinez located the caller and learned the subject had mental health issues and had set the fire himself. The Arson Unit was contacted and Officer Martinez transported the subject to the hospital for a mental health evaluation.
- On December 14, Officer Griego was dispatched to make contact with the owner of a vehicle recently reported stolen. The owner advised she had tracked her vehicle using a global positioning system (GPS) to an apartment complex. With the assistance of other officers, Officer Griego coordinated a tactical approach and found a male occupant inside the vehicle. The male was taken into custody and booked on a felony charge.
- On December 17, Officers Bonet and Willsey responded to a stabbing call. Upon arrival, officers provided medical aid to the victim until rescue personnel arrived. The officers were credited by both rescue and hospital staff for their quick and effective medical response.
- On December 17, Officer White was on random patrol when he observed a subject searching through a vehicle with a flashlight. Officer White noticed a broken passenger window on the vehicle and contacted the subject. Through his investigation, Officer White determined the subject did not have permission to be in the vehicle and he was booked on felony charges.
- On December 27, Officer Figueroa was dispatched to a suspicious person call. When he arrived on scene, he was flagged down by the caller who stated he had tracked his stolen vehicle using a global positioning system (GPS). The caller stated his daughter had followed the female subject into a nearby store. Assisting officers located the female subject hiding in the bathroom. She had also hid two firearms in a trash can. The female was a convicted felon and was arrested.
- On December 26, Community Response Officers Elrick and Armijo were on bike patrol near the bus depot when they observed a male making a hand-to-hand transaction with the occupant of a vehicle. Officers approached the male and discovered a baggy containing twelve crack cocaine rocks in his left hand. The male was placed into custody and a search revealed other narcotics and materials consistent with drug trafficking in his backpack.

Southwest Area Command...

- On December 1, Officer Molina was on random patrol when he noticed two trucks travelling at a high rate of speed. He followed the vehicles until they drove into the west mesa and parked near an electrical pole and turned off their lights. Officer Molina requested backup. Officers conducted an invisible approach. As they announced their presence and turned on their flashlights, one subject fled and was not located. Another male subject was taken into custody. Both trucks were confirmed stolen and a rifle and handgun were located inside the vehicle. The male subject in custody was found to be a convicted felon. He was charged with a felon in possession of a firearm, receiving and transferring a stolen vehicle and auto burglary.
- On December 6, Sergeants Baca and Garcia attended a neighborhood watch start-up discussion meeting. The group represented homes bordering a local park. Although statistics in the area reflect low numbers of property crimes, their concern was people parking in designated no parking spaces around the park. They also expressed concerns on police response times to these traffic related calls for service. Sergeant Garcia did a good job explaining why dispatch times can be long on these calls and offered advice on what to do when they see the vehicles parked illegally. He also discussed possible solutions of improved road markings that could be discussed with the City.
- On December 14, Officer Nagy heard an attempt to locate a suspicious male subject seen exiting a vehicle near a home under construction. The caller stated the subject went to the construction site, returned to the vehicle, but later walked away on foot. The caller gave a description of the subject and his direction of travel and Officer Nagy located the male. It was determined the vehicle the subject was seen getting out of was stolen. A witness also positively identified the subject as the one seen in the stolen vehicle. The subject told officers he had recently been in jail for taking an APD bait vehicle. He was booked for receiving and transferring a stolen vehicle.
- On December 15, Officer Toledo responded to a vandalism call. The caller initially was upset with the delay in officers responding. As Officer Toledo talked and listened to the caller, he realized the caller was upset because he was struggling financially and unable to provide for his family during the upcoming holidays. After clearing the call, Officers Toledo and Anzo drove to a local store and purchased a Christmas tree and obtained two $50 dollar gift cards. They drove back to the home and delivered the tree and gift cards.

- On December 16, Officer Bailey was flagged down by a male subject advising he had seen his picture in the newspaper and believed there was a warrant for his arrest. The subject stated he wanted to turn himself in. A search of the National Crime Information Center (NCIC) database confirmed a felony and misdemeanor warrant for his arrest. The subject was arrested and booked without incident.
- On December 22, Officer Gonzales was flagged down by a security guard regarding a vehicle parked at a nearby restaurant. The security guard stated the vehicle had been avoiding him. Officer Gonzales proceeded to investigate the situation. The vehicle was displaying a temporary tag and had a female driver. The driver told Officer Gonzales she was waiting for a friend. Officer Gonzales searched the vehicle identification number (VIN) through the National Crime Information Center database and the vehicle was confirmed stolen. The driver was placed under arrest. Upon search of the vehicle, multiple items considered drug paraphernalia were found.
- On December 28, Officer Vallejos was dispatched to a subject attempting to cash a fraudulent check in the amount of $861.26. The subject was taken into custody and booked on charges of fraud over $500 and forgery.
- On December 28, Officer Jones responded to a domestic violence call. Through his investigation, it was found the victim's ex-boyfriend attempted to crash into her vehicle on two occasions in an attempt to get her to stop. There were two small children in the vehicle during the incident. Officer Jones identified the male and confirmed he had an active restraining order. The male was charged with a restraining order violation, aggravated battery with a deadly weapon and child endangerment.

Northwest Area Command...

- In December, Officers Romero and Saladin conducted a month long tactical plan near the west side shopping center. Officer Romero patrolled the mall in between calls for service looking for subjects breaking the law and talking to management at the mall. The tactical plan resulted in one felony shoplifting arrest, three shoplifting citations, four criminal trespass notifications written, two vandalism reports written and two auto burglary reports written.

- On December 8, Officers Perea, Nakamura and Rico located an occupied stolen vehicle. The occupants were in possession of jiggle keys. Two occupants were arrested and the vehicle was returned to its owner.
- On December 8, Officers, Bran, Garza, Perea and Rico participated in the Tip A Cop fundraiser for Special Olympics. These officers worked for four hours prior to their regular shift.
- On December 9, Northwest officers apprehended two subjects inside a stolen vehicle. Upon a search, they found an assault rifle in the vehicle. During the investigation, it was determined one of the suspects was wanted in connection to a homicide. Both occupants were arrested for several felony crimes.
- On December 14, Officers Hoisington and Henry were dispatched to a credit union where a male subject was attempting to cash a stolen check. Upon arrival, the male subject ignored officers and attempted to enter a vehicle. The male subject began to physically fight but the officers were able to take him into custody. The male subject and his girlfriend who was a passenger in the car were arrested. The male subject was released from custody the following day. Shortly after his release, the subject went to the girlfriend's house and wanted her to exit the house but was confronted by the girlfriend's father. The male subject then pulled a gun from his waist band and pointed it at the father's face. Impact Units obtained a warrant for his arrest and the male was again arrested after a SWAT standoff at his home.
- On December 21, Officers Carrillo and Montoya were dispatched to an apartment complex where two male subjects were attempting to steal a truck. With the assistance of Air Support, the two subjects were taken into custody.
- On December 23, Northwest Team 1 officers delivered gifts to a woman and her ten year-old son after they became victims of a residential burglary where all their Christmas presents were stolen.
- On December 29, Northwest Impact detectives were tasked with conducting a follow up investigation on two subjects who were committing fraud, forgery, and identity theft. Detectives arrested one subject and identified the outstanding subject. Two search warrants were executed and several victims' identifying information was recovered. Two stolen motorcycles were also recovered, along with a pound of methamphetamines.

Monthly Comparison

3-Month Comparison

% change is based upon the 2016 time-frame compared to the average of the previous 3 years for the same time-frame. The green represents numbers that are highly statistically significant. It denotes that there were less than average incidents of the particular crime. The amount is over 2 standard deviations away from the mean (toward the far outer portion of the tails of a bell-shaped curve). The yellow represents numbers that are statistically significant. It denotes that there were more than average incidents of the particular crime. The amount is over 2 standard deviations away from the mean (toward the far outer portion of the tails of a bell-shaped curve).
