MEET SERGEANT ERICA LOWRY

I was born and raised in the South Valley of Albuquerque, New Mexico. I graduated from Rio Grande High School and attended the University of New Mexico, where I Majored in Criminology and Minored in Psychology.

I have used my Bachelor of Arts degree in my current profession with the Albuquerque Police Department, where I have been a police officer since April 2009 and promoted to Sergeant in July 2019.

I have worked in the field taking calls for service, participated with the Emergency Response Team, The Horse Mounted Unit, the Crisis Intervention team, Honor Guard Team, and Peer Support Program. I became a Crimes Against Children Detective and served in that capacity for three years, where I worked closely with the District Attorney's Office, All Faith's Receiving home and the Children, Youth and Families Department.

I am newly assigned to the Downtown Public Safety District overseeing the Downtown Unit.

I am a certified Enhanced Crisis Intervention officer/ Coordinator, Basic Instructor, and have training in basic search and rescue.

Away from work, and for the past 19 years, my husband and I coach the Rio Grande Lady Ravens soccer team. I have a passion to inspire young athletes and give back to the community I was raised in. I enjoy working out, boxing, and continuing my education through the UNM, EMBA Program.

I have three children, an energetic seven-year-old and two, two-year olds that keep me motivated to continue to learn and bring a new refreshed outlook on everyday obstacles. Through this experience, I hope to bring back to the Albuquerque Police Department an innovative vision to assist with daily task oversight, project management, and collaborate with multiple stakeholders to create a dynamic atmosphere for our community.

Thank you, Sgt. Erica Lowry

Pet Safety Tips

What to do if you have lost your pet.

Search the neighborhood several times each day.

Contact local animal shelters and animal control agencies.

Ask neighbors, letter carriers and delivery people if they have seen your pet.

- If your pet has a microchip, alert your microchip company so that your pet can be flagged as lost. Notify the police if you believe your pet was stolen.
- Flyers that offer a reward and/or indicate that your pet needs special medication often get extra attention.
- On social media posts, include your pet's sex, age, weight, breed, color and any special markings.
- Expand your search area and repost to social media and online forums."

*Do not give up on your search!
