a. Report on crimes in the Foothills Crime Report from APD [attached]

Commander Rodgers noted some temporary problems with the Foothillsareacommand.com website.

A question concerning the proper actions of citizens when there is a SWAT situation in the neighborhood resulted in considerable discussion. Cdr Rodgers said that citizens can call 242-COPS or 311 for information on SWAT operations.

Nicole Chavez-Lucero suggested that the Council could invite Major Christiansen (sp?) to address the group on their procedures and communication.

b. Reports from Celina Espinoza and/or Nicole Chavez-Lucero

Celina distributed a brief CPC survey for attendees and council members alike. She also asked how attendees found out about t the CPC meeting. Several people said that they had heard through a NextDoor.com notification.

6. Featured Speakers: Discussion of Use of Force Policy Definitions 2-25-2

Lieutenant Bret White delivered a lengthy and detailed review of the definitions related to Use of Force. He noted that all judicial decisions regarding the legality of a specific instance of force stemmed from two Supreme Court decisions. Graham v. Connor (1989) establishes that an officer's right to make an arrest or investigatory stop carries with it "the right to use physical coercion or threat thereof to effect it." Tennessee v. Garner (1985) holds that an "officer may not use deadly force to prevent the escape of a fleeing suspect unless the officer has probable cause to believe the suspect poses a significant threat of death or serious physical injury to the officer or others." [Quotes from Lt White's presentation.]

A question arose as to the development of APD's procedures and policies. Lt White noted that each policy is reviewed by organizations not connected to APD. If deficiencies are found, those policies are returned to APD for revision and then reviewed again before adoption.
