FIELD SERVICES BUREAU-EAST

Southeast Area Command...

- In July, the Southeast Area Command had 15,140 calls for service, wrote 2,261 reports and issued 539 citations. There were 237 felony arrests/warrants, 268 misdemeanor arrests/warrants and 33 driving while intoxicated (DWI) arrests. Eight community meetings were attended.
- In July, Officer C. Chavez located a stolen vehicle. After observing the driver walk into a convenience store, officers established a perimeter and took the female driver into custody without incident.
- On July 6, Officer Herbst was on patrol when he observed a suspicious parked truck with an occupant inside. Officer Herbst ran the plate and the vehicle came back stolen. When Officer Herbst attempted to make contact, the driver jumped out of the vehicle and fled the scene. Officers saturated the area and the offender was located. He was found to have an outstanding felony warrant for his arrest.
- On July 7, officers were dispatched to a domestic dispute where gunshots were reported. Upon arrival, officers made contact with the victim who stated her ex-boyfriend arrived unannounced and brandished a firearm pointing it at her head. He then proceeded to force his way into the house where he fired several rounds at a teen. The teen ran to a room where he armed himself with a shotgun and exchanged fire causing the offender to flee the scene. Southeast Impact detectives were called to assist and the offender later turned himself in.
- On July 17, officers were dispatched to a call in response to two subjects who were seen breaking a window to a residence and attempting to gain entry. Officer arrived on scene and saturated the area. They located the two subjects who were later identified by the witness. Both subjects were arrested and later booked into the Metropolitan Detention Center (MDC).
- On July 21, Officer Herbst was on patrol when he ran a license plate which came back as stolen. Officer Herbst conducted a traffic stop and made contact with the driver and passenger. The passenger was found to have an outstanding warrant for his arrest. While conducting an inventory search of the vehicle, Officer Herbst located a firearm under the passenger seat. The passenger admitted to the firearm being his. He was also found to be a felon.
- On July 4, Southeast units were dispatched to a stolen city owned bait vehicle. The vehicle was tracked and monitored by an electronic tracking system. The stolen vehicle was located by officers and had one occupant. The vehicle was disabled remotely as it stopped at a red light. The auto theft offender fled from the vehicle on foot and was apprehended without incident a short distance from the vehicle. The offender was arrested and booked for unlawful taking of a motor vehicle and possession of burglary tools.
- On July 11, Officers McBrayer and Nogales were dispatched to an auto burglary. The witness advised that two subjects, one female and one male, entered a vehicle using some type of pipe or metal bar and removed belongings from the vehicle. The witness gave descriptions of the two offenders and their direction of travel. Officers McBrayer and Nogales located the two offenders in a nearby apartment complex courtyard. The subjects were detained pending police investigation. Officer McBrayer located the owner of the vehicle who provided a statement that he did not give anyone permission to enter his vehicle and remove his belongings. The suspects were booked on burglary and conspiracy charges.
- On July 22, Officers T. Ivie and J. DeHerrera were dispatched to a motor vehicle crash with injuries involving a motorcycle and an automobile. Upon investigation, the rider of the motorcycle requested that officers take his belongings to him from the saddle bag of his motorcycle. Officer DeHerrera inventoried the bag and located a firearm in the saddle bag. The firearm was confiscated and tagged as safekeeping. Officer Ivie arrived at the hospital and contacted hospital personnel who turned over packaging and a film canister which contained illegal narcotics. Officer Ivie recognized the white powdery substance to be cocaine. A field test of the white powdery substance revealed a presumptive positive for cocaine. Officer Ivie completed a criminal case and submitted it to the District Attorney's Office for prosecution.
- On July 29, an anonymous caller with Fugitive Recovery called police to report that he had observed a stolen vehicle occupied by two males. Officers J. Montoya and Z. Herbst located the stolen vehicle. The officers requested K-9 Officer J. Richards and a high risk stop was conducted. The driver and passengers of the vehicle were detained. The driver was charged with one count of receiving/transferring a stolen motor vehicle and possession of burglary tools. The suspect's arrest history included previous arrests for receiving/transferring stolen motor vehicles, felon in possession of a firearm, narcotics charges which included distribution, and probation violation warrants.

- On July 6-7, Detectives D. Garcia, V. Barela, P. Moya, and T. Hotle participated in a federal warrant round up with the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives. The detectives were all deputized under the flag of the U.S. Marshals to assist with the above operation. At the conclusion of the operation, 40 subjects were arrested and large amounts of narcotics and firearms were seized.

Northeast Area Command...

- In July, the Northeast Area Command had 11,196 calls for service, wrote 1,988 reports and issued 660 citations. There were 146 felony arrests, 234 misdemeanor arrests, 30 driving while intoxicated (DWI) arrests and 157 felony and misdemeanor warrants issued. Eight community meetings were attended.
- On July 1, Officer S. Cerasia was dispatched to an auto theft in response to a caller who located his stolen truck. The caller stated he witnessed two males placing items inside the vehicle. Officer S. Cerasia confirmed the vehicle was stolen and called for back-up. The officers took the suspects into custody and returned the stolen vehicle to its owner.
- In July, Officer J. Lopez-Shook took three juvenile calls where she found that the children were not safe. She got the Children, Youth and Families Department (CYFD) involved and put a 48 hour hold on the children to ensure that CYFD had time to place the children in safe homes.
- In July, officer concentrated on city parks due to numerous quality of life complaints. Officers increased their patrol due to aggressive panhandlers. Three citations were issued along with 20 citizen contacts with verbal warnings. They also made contact with three homeless individuals that declined help and located one empty tent. Officers contacted the city to clean up the tent. In one of the parks, officers issued five citations for parking and speeding in the area.
- On July 4, Officers A. Henry and C. Garcia were dispatched to a male subject under the influence of an intoxicating narcotic and acting irrational. The male subject was breaking windows of several businesses in the area with a rock. Upon initial contact with the subject, he took off running. Officers caught the offender and took him into custody without incident. Due to his irrational behavior and being under the influence, he was transported to the hospital for further evaluation. Once released from the hospital, he was transported to the Northeast substation where he became verbally and physically aggressive and uncooperative with officers. The subject was booked on several charges.

- In July, Detective L. Neil was assigned follow-up investigation into a domestic violence incident where the offender held the victim against her will on two separate occasions. The offender repeatedly sexually assaulted and caused physical harm to the victim while being armed with a handgun. Detective L. Neil got an arrest warrant for the offender and with the help of Bernalillo County Sheriff's Office (BCSO) deputies, took him into custody. He was charged with false imprisonment, kidnapping, criminal sexual contact and aggravated assault on a household member with intent to commit a violent felony.
- In July, Detective J. Carter worked several related cases in reference to high end makeup theft at a local pharmacy. Detective Carter identified and charged the suspects with shoplifting $500-$2,500 and conspiracy on multiple counts. Detective J. Carter was able to recover some of the stolen merchandise from conducting a search warrant on the offenders' vehicle. In addition, officers located heroin during the search and the offenders were charged with possession of a controlled substance.
- In July, Community Resource Officer M. Benavidez, T. Percival from the Crisis Outreach and Support Team (COAST) and representatives from St. Martin's conducted outreach in areas experiencing chronic issues with homelessness, needles, trash and camping in a public park. Many subjects were contacted and some took advantage of the services offered.
- In July, a Northeast Auto Burglary tactical plan was revamped based on the most up-to-date statistics. The program evolved from a surveillance operation to community outreach. Detectives were in contact with property managers, hotel/motel managers, and neighborhood organizations. The Northeast Impact team and Auto Theft detectives worked together to address the growing issues of auto theft in the area. Several burglary and auto theft bait cars were deployed. In addition, two uniformed officers were recruited to assist with direct patrol in hot spot areas during the graveyard shift. During the 24-hour tactical plan, only two auto burglaries took place in the area command.

- On July 5, Officer D. Sprague was dispatched to a domestic dispute. Officer D. Sprague made contact with the alleged victim who was badly injured during the dispute with her husband. The injuries rose to the level of a felony charge. Officer D. Sprague was concerned the situation would escalate so he wrote an arrest warrant rather than sending the case to the Impact Unit. The victim was assisted with medical treatment and shelter. Several days later, the alleged offender was taken into custody.
- On July 1, Officers J. O'Guin and S. Lopez were dispatched to a shopping center in response to a male trying to either burglarize or steal a vehicle. Officers located the male and he attempted to flee on foot. Officers apprehended him after a short foot pursuit. Once apprehended the male was found to be in possession of a handgun. He was arrested on multiple felony charges for property crime.

Foothills Area Command...

- In July, the Foothills Area Command had 7,268 calls for service, wrote 1,314 reports and issued 583 citations. There were 104 felony arrests, 156 misdemeanor arrests and 12 driving while intoxicated (DWI) arrests. Fifteen community meetings were attended.
- On July 23, Officer T. Schmelzer was dispatched to an aggravated assault with a deadly weapon. Officers Mayfield and Schmelzer made contact with the victim who advised that he had found a subject lying on the sidewalk in front of a business sleeping. The victim woke up the subject and was threatened with a knife. The offender was arrested for aggravated assault with a deadly weapon and a misdemeanor warrant.
- On July 26, Officers D. Byrd and L. Jaramillo were dispatched to a domestic violence call. Upon arrival, officers made contact with the caller/victim. The victim stated that her and her boyfriend got into an argument over messages with other people on their cellphones. The victim indicated that her boyfriend became physically aggressive with her. He punched her, grabbed her around her neck and pushed her while she was carrying her one-year-old son, causing her son to hit his head on the wall. At one point, the offender pulled out two knives and gave one to the victim and stated, "we can do this." The victim dropped the knife and the boyfriend held his knife to her throat. The victim was able to distract the offender by asking him to get her son's bottle from the car because he was crying. When the boyfriend left, the victim ran to her neighbor's apartment and called the police. The offender was arrested on felony domestic violence charges.

- On July 31, Officer Mayfield was dispatched to a store in response to a shoplifting. Upon arrival, the suspect gave officers a false name and date of birth. Officers were able to find his real identity by taking him to the APD Identification Section. The male was identified and it was discovered that he had six felony warrants and one misdemeanor warrant. He was arrested on the warrants and given citations for concealing identity and shoplifting.
- On July 15, Officer Trujillo was dispatched to a welfare check. The caller lived out of town and was concerned that he had not heard from his friend who was very sick. Sergeant Dosal and Officer Trujillo knocked on the door with no response from inside the residence. Officers made telephone calls to the residence and spoke with three different neighbors who advised they had not seen the occupant in a few days. One neighbor advised they had keys for the residence and officers gained entry. The occupant was found inside the apartment badly injured from a fall and unable to stand up on his own. He was transported to Presbyterian Hospital for his injuries. The occupant was found to have broken ribs, a severe head wound, leg injuries and other medical issues.
- On July 8, T. Percival, Officer Urioste and the Crisis Outreach and Support Team (COAST) made contact with four subjects who had been generating high calls for service. They offered services and scheduled a follow up visit for an individual.
- On July 8, Officer B. Garcia responded to a welfare check on an elderly female who had a restraining order on her 29-year-old son. The elderly female stated her son was hiding in the back of her home and she was afraid of him. The son fled from Officers Garcia and Bludworth when confronted. The subject was apprehended at a nearby park and was arrested for a felony warrant.

- In July, Officers Tartaglia and Bludworth were dispatched to a suspicious person call at a local hotel. As Officer Tartaglia was working on the suspicious person call, Officer Bludworth located a vehicle nearby that matched the description of a vehicle from a commercial burglary the day before. It was determined the vehicle was also related to the suspicious person call Officer Tartaglia was investigating. The male and female subjects were identified and the stolen property was recovered.
- On July 10, Officer Vanderlip responded to a domestic violence call. The caller stated his stepfather battered him in the face and threw him against a wall. Officer Vanderlip conducted the investigation which led to the arrest of the stepfather for felony child abuse.
- On July 11, Detective Clipp was notified of a shooting incident. The offender had fired approximately 40-50 rounds during the incident. During the investigation, impacts were found and detectives conducted a canvas of the neighborhood identifying two homes that had been struck by three rounds. An arrest warrant was obtained for the offender. Detective Clipp noticed the offender's vehicle was at his residence and that it had not been there earlier in the day. The Investigative Support Unit was contacted to assist in attempting to apprehend the subject. The subject was apprehended and evidence was recovered from the residence to assist in prosecution.

The purpose of the tactical plan was to provide high visibility and enforce park ordinances and laws. Officer Aragon made four contacts and issued four citations.
- In July, Officer Harp responded to an assault that occurred in the Bosque. Officer Harp and other officers located the offender who had battered

- two women. The male offender threatened to shoot police officers but was taken into custody without incident.
- On July 1, Officers Mares and Holmes were dispatched to a fight in progress. The males involved in the fight were not on scene but officers were able to obtain vehicle information. Upon further investigation it was discovered that the incident was an auto burglary in progress and the males involved in the fight were the victims attempting to apprehend the male offender. A short time later, officers located a male subject matching the description of the possible offender. The male was taken into custody without incident and was found to have an extensive criminal history. The victims were also contacted and positively identified the offender.
- On July 28, Officer Mares was conducting an investigation on a stolen truck when he observed a suspicious male walking in the area. He recognized the male who was inside another stolen car that fled from officers the day prior. Officer Mares contacted the male who admitted to being inside the stolen car. He also admitted to having methamphetamine on him. The male was arrested without incident and provided officers with the names of offenders in other crimes in the Northwest Area Command.
- On July 23, Officer Hoisington was dispatched to a possible stolen vehicle and runaway call. The caller's daughter was not home and his vehicle was also missing. The caller stated that his daughter had never run away from home and did not have a driver's license. Officer Hoisington listed the daughter as a runaway and the vehicle as stolen with National Crime Information Center (NCIC). Officer Hoisington later received information that the daughter may be at a local high school. An officer was dispatched and located the daughter and the vehicle. The daughter was arrested for auto theft.
- On July 26, Open Space Officer Harvey was flagged down in response to a female that was being battered. The offender matched the description of a suspect of a felony battery that had occurred in the same area. Officer Harvey contacted the subject and he told Officer Harvey he had a .357 and was going to shoot him. The subject walked towards the rear of his vehicle and began getting inside. Officer Harvey immediately closed the distance and stopped the subject from possibly grabbing a weapon from inside the vehicle. A short struggle ensued and Officer Barnhill arrived to assist Officer Harvey.

Both officers were able to detain the subject and he was arrested for felony battery.

- In July, Officer A. Hoisington conducted a speeding tactical plan. Officer Hoisington issued 11 moving citations.
- On July 19, Northwest Impact detectives investigated a stabbing. During the investigation it was learned the offender pointed an assault weapon towards two APD officers who were responding to a different call on a different day. Northwest Impact detectives attempted to get an arrest for the assault. However, the District Attorney refused the warrant. Detectives then focused on the stabbing case and were able to secure an arrest and search warrant for the offender. The offender was charged with several felony charges including attempted murder. SWAT assisted in the arrest and the subject was booked into the Metropolitan Detention Center (MDC). An officer safety bulletin was put out city-wide and the computer aided dispatch (CAD) system was flagged for future calls associated with this address.
- On July 1, Officer S. Arias was completing a down and out call when he was flagged down by the victim of an auto theft who had just located his vehicle. He told Officer Arias that the offenders had just gone into a nearby business. Officer Arias made contact with the subjects and located a second stolen vehicle at the same location. Two male subjects were taken into custody. The investigation resulted in the recovery of two stolen vehicles, two felony arrests and a recovered high powered rifle.
- On July 12, Officer S. Arias responded to a call where the victim reported that a male subject had pointed a gun at him. - On July 9, K-9 officers responded to an alarm call at a local business. Upon arrival, K-9 officers made announcements for anyone inside the business to exit. A male subject exited and was taken into custody without incident.
- On July 10, K-9 officers responded to the area where a subject had fled from an electronic system activation. The activation was a department-owned vehicle. The subject was tracked to an apartment. Upon making contact, the subject armed himself with a knife and threatened to hurt himself or others. K-9 officers set up containment and react teams and convinced the subject to exit the residence without incident.
- On July 16, K-9 officers assisted the Auto Theft Unit and Investigative Support Unit in taking a career criminal into custody. The subject was located in a stolen vehicle and officers spike belted the vehicle causing it to become inoperable. The subject fled on foot and was apprehended by a police service dog. The subject was wanted for ramming multiple police vehicles throughout the day and multiple counts of auto theft.
- On July 29, K-9 officers conducted a K-9 demonstration for the Wesley Kids Daycare and the 1st Presbyterian Church. The demonstration provided officers a great opportunity for community outreach.
- On July 29, K-9 officers assisted Southeast Area Command officers in apprehending two auto theft suspects in a stolen vehicle. K-9 officers responded to the area and took the subjects into custody without incident. The subject stated they did not run due to the presence of the police service dogs.
- In July, SWAT conducted six tactical activations.

- On July 7, SWAT was called to assist the New Mexico State Police SWAT in response to a subject barricaded inside a residence and wanted for violent felony warrants. APD SWAT assisted with surrounding the residence and holding containment as well as attempting to have the subject surrender via public address announcements. This continued until the Federal Bureau of Investigation tactical units took over the scene.
- On July 17, SWAT was called to assist field officers in response to a male subject inside a local grocery store threatening to stab a customer. As officers attempted to take him into custody, the subject threatened the officers and told them he would do something to make them shoot him. The subject sat on a sidewalk in front of the business and refused to comply with orders to surrender. When SWAT officers arrived, the subject appeared to be affected by their appearance and agreed to surrender. He was taken into custody without further incident.
- On July 19, SWAT was called to assist the Investigative Support Unit with a male subject wanted for attempted murder. The subject was known to have a violent criminal history and had made numerous threats to shoot at law enforcement officers with high-powered rifles and a shotgun. SWAT surrounded the subject's residence and gave orders for him to surrender to police. After approximately 20 minutes, the subject exited his residence and surrendered. He was taken into custody without incident.
- On July 26, field officers responded to a domestic violence call where a female stated her boyfriend battered her and threatened her with a knife. Officers attempted to take the male subject into custody, however he refused to exit the apartment and surrender to police. The subject was believed to be armed with a handgun. SWAT arrived and gave public announcements for the subject to exit the apartment. When the subject refused to exit, a noise flash distraction device was deployed outside of the apartment to gain the attention of the subject and compel him to surrender. A few minutes later, the subject exited the apartment and was taken into custody without incident. SWAT cleared the apartment for detectives to conduct a search warrant.

Open Space...

- On July 2, Open Space Search and Rescue (OS SAR) was called to assist with a search for a female with mental health issues who was missing. The woman's parents told field officers the woman was between group homes and did not like living in them. The female told her parents she was going camping in the mountains. The mother got a text from her daughter saying she was going to relocate from the Sandia Mountains, where it is illegal to camp, to the Manzano Mountains. Her mother logged into the cell phone bill a couple of days later and noticed that on the night her daughter relocated camps, she had called 911. OS SAR requested a forensic history on the phone but the company could not pull any helpful details on the 911 call and the phone had since died. OS SAR searched for the missing person but had to suspend the search because they didn't have any additional information to pursue and could not locate the woman's vehicle. Missing Persons was advised so that they could follow up with the family.
- On July 9, Open Space officers discovered a stolen truck in the Rio Grande River. The recovery was a technical, two-day operation involving multiple agencies. Heavy equipment was brought in and a path to the river was made. The truck was hauled up the steep bank of the river and transported to an awaiting flatbed tow truck. Environmental monitoring groups were notified of the fuel and oil contaminants that were leaked into the river.
- On July 13, Open Space officers were requested in response to a lost hiker. The hiker stated he was cold, out of water, and did not have a light to guide himself off the mountain. APD's Real Time Crime Center did a history on the subject and found he uses methamphetamine, is often armed and fights with officers. The subject would not respond to phone calls and would only text Sergeant Bassett. The texts were confusing and he stated he could hear people

Office of Emergency Management... (OEM)...

- In July, the OEM Director attended the Balloon Festival public safety meetings.

talking about money. He also said he had taken drugs. Officers located a small, faint light that appeared to be coming from his phone. Due to his agitated, drug-induced state, only the law enforcement SAR team were sent to retrieve him. After hiking for two hours, officers reached the subject. Monthly Comparison

3-Month Comparison

% change is based upon the 2016 time frame compared to the average of the previous 3 years for the same time frame. The green represents numbers that are highly statistically significant. It denotes that there were less than average incidents of the particular crime. The amount is over 2 standard deviations away from the mean (toward the far outer portion of the tails of a bell-shaped curve). The yellow represents numbers that are highly statistically significant. It denotes that there were more than average incidents of the particular crime. The amount is over 2 standard deviations away from the mean (toward the far outer portion of the tails of a bell-shaped curve). This data was prepared by the Crime Analysis Unit of the Real Time Crime Center. Contact Sarah Wasek at 768-4392 or swasek@rtccc.gov for further information or questions.
