Field Services Bureau

Southeast Area Command...

- On January 4, Officer Bartlett arrested a man for an outstanding felony warrant. After placing the male under arrest, Officer Bartlett found that the man had several bags of methamphetamine in the rim of his hat. The man was not only arrested for his felony warrant but also booked for trafficking a controlled substance.
- On January 11, Officer Lueckenhoff conducted a traffic stop. Officers made contact with a female driver. The vehicle had a strong odor of marijuana coming from inside the vehicle. After further investigation, officers found over a pound of marijuana in the vehicle. The female was arrested for trafficking marijuana.
- On January 19, Officer A. Lee was dispatched to a hospital in reference to a domestic incident that occurred. The victim had been knocked down and held down until she blacked out. Officer Lee was able to locate the offender and take him into custody. He was charged with aggravated battery on a household member.
- On January 19, Officer J. Friedfertig was dispatched to a home invasion at a northeast location. A 72 year old female's home was victimized by two unknown males. She was able to escape from the home without the intruders knowing she was ever inside. She hid outside in the bushes for approximately one hour while the subject ransacked her home and stole her vehicle as the left.
- On January 29, Officer T. Tixier arrested an offender for unlawful taking of a motor vehicle and aggravated fleeing of an officer. Officer Tixier stopped the vehicle, and upon making contact with the driver, he fled from Officer Tixier at a high rate of speed. After running a stop sign, the driver abandoned the vehicle and fled on foot. Officer Tixier pursued the driver and took him into custody.
- On January 9 and 10, the Southeast Impact Team conducted a proactive tactical plan that included contacting potential victims of auto theft. Southeast Impact Team detectives made contact with vehicle owners that were warming up their vehicles early in the morning; warning them of the potential risk of leaving their vehicles unattended while the keys were in the ignition. During the two day operation, detectives made contact with approximately 30 potential victims. The contacts were made in neighborhoods in efforts to stifle auto thefts in the Southeast Area Command.

- On January 18, Sergeant J. Burke was contacted by a concerned citizen that a subject on the property crimes most wanted list was observed in the area of Central and San Pedro. The concerned citizen recognized the subject from the insert in the Albuquerque Journal, and called Sergeant Burke. Officer J. Dear and Detective P. Moya arrived in the area and were able to take the suspect into custody. The suspect attempted to conceal his identity by using a friend's name, but the name was returned with several felony warrants out of Roswell, NM. The suspect provided his true name and date of birth once he realized that he only had one warrant compared to his friend's copious amount of warrants. The suspect was booked on the felony warrant for burglary.
- The Southeast Problem Response Team was conducting patrols in Beat 335 when they observed a sedan that was displaying a stolen license plate. The vehicle was followed to a convenience store where PRT officers waited for the vehicle to park. Once the vehicle was parked, officers quickly contacted the four occupants of the vehicle and they were all placed in custody. One of the passengers was found to be 15 years of age. The VIN was run through NCIC and the vehicle was determined to be stolen. A search of the vehicle was conducted and officers located three stolen firearms. Also inside the vehicle officers located a small baggy of methamphetamine.
- The Southeast Problem Response Team (PRT) was in the area of Central and Charleston when they observed a four door sedan parked at a local motel. Officers did a history check on the vehicle and it was determined that it had been taken at gunpoint on December 27, 2013 from the owner's friend. With the assistance of the RTCC, Southeast PRT officers were able to contact the owner's mother who later contacted the owner and found that the vehicle had not been returned to him by his friend. Southeast PRT and patrol units followed the vehicle to a convenience store where the occupants of the vehicle were contacted and placed in custody. The vehicle was returned and the driver of the vehicle was arrested. A background on the driver revealed that he had a criminal history of murder in the 1st degree, manslaughter, child abuse, aggravated battery, robbery with a deadly - weapon, false imprisonment, and auto burglary. Southeast Impact Team detectives conducted an operation in the area of Madeira SE and Ross SE. During the operation, a male subject was observed looking into vehicles while operating a bicycle at night without a forward facing light. Contact was attempted with the subject by Detective Garcia and assisting detectives. The bike rider began to actively elude officers on foot. The suspect was seen throwing items he was carrying, including a backpack and other items. He was taken into custody and was in possession of a .22 caliber bullet. After recovering items the man had thrown, a .22 caliber handgun was found on the ground next to his backpack. The suspect later stated he was in possession of the handgun while running away from officers.

Foothills Area Command...

- Officers M. Reeder and P. Martin were dispatched to a priority one domestic dispute call. The caller advised dispatch that her daughter's ex-boyfriend was attempting to break into the residence. While officers were en route, the caller advised that the boyfriend had fled and that her daughter had chased after him. The caller advised that the boyfriend had been violent in the past and threatened her and her daughter with a knife before. The RTCC advised that the boyfriend had multiple felony warrants for his arrest. Officers searched the neighborhood for the boyfriend. While officers were checking the area, the mother of the girlfriend flagged them down. She reported to the officers that she saw the boyfriend on the roof of a nearby middle school. Officers Reeder and Martin arrived at the school and could see the boyfriend on the roof. The Air Support Unit assisted in searching the area. They were able to keep a visual account of the boyfriend. Several other members of Team 7 arrived on scene and began to set up a perimeter on the building. During this time, Officers Reeder and Martin were continually attempting to talk to the boyfriend without any success. After almost an hour, Metro 1 advised that the boyfriend was moving to an area where he could jump off. Shortly after, the boyfriend jumped off the roof and attempted to run away from officers. He was caught and taken into custody as he attempted to jump a chain link fence on the north end of the school grounds. He was booked into the MDC on multiple charges.

- On January 23, Officer B. Aragon was on random patrol in a hot spot area of likely criminal activity, including property crimes. As he checked the area, he noticed a suspicious looking male subject walking in the area. He stopped and initiated a consensual encounter with the subject. The subject advised the officers that he had warrants. Officer Aragon called for another unit for backup, then ran the subject through NCIC. The suspect was found to have multiple felony warrants for his arrest. He was also determined to be one of APD's most wanted property crime offenders.
- Officers implemented a metal theft tactical plan at a local library. Two copper thefts occurred at the location in a short time period which prompted the tactical plan. Field briefings were conducted at the site, as well as directed patrol that resulted in stopping the metal thefts and suspicious activity in January.
- A tactical plan at Hotel Circle NE targeted criminal and suspicious activity. The initiative resulted in 10 contacts, one DWI arrest, and identification of two copper theft suspects.
- Sergeant D. Baca was in the area of Tramway and Wenonah when he observed subjects placing items into their vehicle's trunk. The vehicle left the parking lot and Sergeant Baca conducted a traffic stop. A nearby business had been burglarized and items from the business were located in the vehicle stopped by Sergeant Baca. A second male had left the scene on foot and left items from the business in a nearby backyard. The suspect stopped by Sergeant Baca was arrested for commercial burglary. The investigation was turned over to the Burglary Unit for follow up and identification of the second suspect.
- On January 14, Officers T. Jacobo and H. Gunderson observed a metal thief. As Officers Jacobo and Gunderson attempted to initiate a traffic stop of the offender, he rammed Officer Gunderson's marked patrol unit and fled officers on foot. During the chase, the offender broke into two houses, and barricaded himself in the second house. Officers set up a perimeter on the second house and were able to get the offender into custody without incident. The offender was charged with aggravated assault on a police officer, possession of narcotics with the intent to distribute, felon in possession of a firearm, possession of stolen property, and residential burglary.

Valley Area Command...

- Officer Gomez initiated a traffic stop on a vehicle. After speaking with the driver, he requested the presence of a DWI Unit officer. The driver was arrested for DWI. During an inventory search of the vehicle, Officer Gomez located narcotics and other materials that suggested that the offender was trafficking illegal substances. The subject was arrested for trafficking, negligent use of a firearm, and the DWI charge.
- Officer J. Arnold was on random patrol when he observed a suspicious vehicle that continued to circle the Downtown District. Unsure what the occupants were up to, Officer Arnold proceeded to run a check on the vehicle through NCIC at which time the vehicle came back with a hit indicating that the vehicle was stolen. Officer Arnold proceeded to follow the vehicle and provided the information along with his location to dispatch. As Officer Arnold was awaiting the arrival of assisting officers in order to engage the vehicle, the driver became aware of his presence and immediately pulled over. The occupants then exited the vehicle and attempted to flee on foot. Officer A. Herpolsheimer, who was monitoring the event and was en route to assist, pulled up just as the occupants were fleeing the area. Both officers issued verbal commands and were able to take the subjects into custody without incident. After consulting with an Auto Theft detective, Officer Arnold released the additional two occupants and booked the driver for receiving and transferring a stolen motor vehicle.
- Officer Fuchs was the primary responding officer on a stabbing call at 3rd and Central Ave on January 18. During the incident, a male was stabbed at least six times in his torso. His injuries included a punctured lung, a stab wound to the head, and a punctured liver. Four suspects were taken into custody after two eluded police on foot.
- Officers M. Elrick and R. Carlson were on random patrol near Broadway and Lomas. They saw a suspicious vehicle parked in back of a fast food restaurant. As they walked up, they could see a male subject injecting narcotics into his arm. As soon as he saw them, he revved the vehicle and drove away at a high rate of speed. He ended up crashing into the side of the restaurant. He then exited the vehicle and fled on foot. Officer Elrick caught up to him and placed him under arrest without incident. He was in possession of narcotics and found to have two felony warrants issued for his arrest.
- Officer L. Acosta responded to a family fight call where a male offender shot into an occupied dwelling. The offender left before police arrived, but during the investigation Officer L. Acosta was able to determine an address that the offender may be located. Officers were able to take the offender into custody. The offender was charged with two felonies and the firearm that was used in the crime was recovered.
- Officer D. Baca responded to a call regarding three subjects that were holding up signs at a highway interchange to collect money for a funeral. Officer D. Baca conducted an investigation of the subjects, since APD had received calls in the prior week regarding the same subjects at a different location. During the investigation it was discovered that the subjects admitted to police that the funeral was a scam and they were using it to collect money from the public. All three subjects were arrested for fraud and two warrants were cleared.
- Officer L. Acosta responded to domestic violence call. Before he arrived, the male offender had left the residence. During the investigation it was discovered that there were felony charges against the offender. A victim's advocate was called out and other officers searched the area, but could not locate the suspect. Once Officer L. Acosta left the residence, APD received a call that the suspect came back and set the victim's vehicle on fire. Again, he left before police arrived. Officer C. Knight went to a local business down the street and reviewed their surveillance video which showed the offender walking toward the parking area carrying a gallon of gasoline which was recovered in the fire by the arson investigator. Valley Impact Team detectives were called to assist and a felony warrant was issued for the suspect.
- On January 9, detectives responded to a family fight where the suspect fired shots into the victim's house and fled the scene. The subject was found and taken into custody. The gun was seized and a large quantity of methamphetamine was also seized. The suspect is a convicted felon and detectives are working with the ATF to pursue federal charges.

- On January 10, Impact Team detectives arrested two individuals for possession of heroin and tampering with evidence. Fourteen grams of heroin was seized. One subject had two felony warrants and one misdemeanor warrant.
- On January 15, a surveillance video was featured on Channel 13 news which showed a female breaking into a vehicle parked at a residence and removing property. Impact Team detectives observed the video and were able to identify the offender. The offender has a history of property crimes and frequents the Valley Area Command. The next day, swing shift officers and detectives located the offender and took her in to custody. She also had an additional felony warrant for her arrest.

Southwest Area Command...

- On January 2, officers were dispatched to a vacant house regarding a vandalism call. The caller stated that an unknown male was parked outside and may have entered the vacant house. Officers contacted the male subject and learned that he had an outstanding misdemeanor warrant for his arrest. A search of the subject yielded marijuana, methamphetamine, and a glass pipe. He was arrested for possession of methamphetamine.
- On January 9, Southwest officers were dispatched to a large retailer regarding a shoplifting call. Upon arriving at the scene, they found that store loss prevention staff had detained one suspect. Officers were able to determine the suspect's true name. It was determined that the suspect had been arrested twice before for shoplifting and had been given a trespass notification from the location. Officers booked the suspect for commercial burglary.
- On January 17, officers were dispatched to an alarm call. Upon arriving at the scene, officers found the doors to the house open. Officers cleared the house to make sure no one was hiding inside. Upon entering the house, officers smelled a strong odor of marijuana. Officers found over 50 marijuana plants in all stages of growth. The homeowners were identified and the case was turned over to the Narcotics Unit. The marijuana was tagged into evidence.
- On January 13, Officers D. Sanchez and F. Duran were dispatched to a southwest location in response to a domestic dispute. Officer Sanchez made contact with the victim who told him her husband put her in a choke hold and dragged her outside. The suspect picked up a hammer and held it over his head as if to strike the victim. The victim was able to get away from the suspect and run inside the house. The suspect followed her inside and grabbed the victims head and pounded it against the counter top. The victim's 14-year-old son tried to intervene, but the suspect pushed and kicked the son away. The victim told officers that the suspect has been an ongoing problem, that the suspect was stalking her, and recently threatened to kill her if she contacted police. The victim was transported to the hospital to be treated. The suspect was not present when officers arrived on scene. Victim's advocates arrived at the hospital and obtained an emergency order of protection. Officers attempted to locate the suspect in the area. Officer M. Chavez stopped a vehicle for an incorrect license plate. Officer Duran was in the area and stopped to assist Officer Chavez on the car stop. Officer Duran recognized the vehicle and driver in reference to a recent robbery at a nearby gas station. The Robbery Unit was contacted and a detective came to interview the suspect. The suspect was ultimately arrested for domestic violence, aggravated assault on a household member, aggravated battery on a household member, kidnapping, residential burglary, and child abuse without great bodily harm.
- On January 7, Impact Team detectives responded to assist field units in locating an offender who had committed a home invasion. Detectives assisted in saturating the area of the last known location. Detectives Chavez and Zambrano saw two males walking on Central, and stopped to talk to them. The suspects appeared nervous and were detained for identification. Both suspects were positively identified as the offenders.
- On January 13, Impact Team detectives were notified that a City yard had property stolen by an unknown male offender in a truck. The offender had taken two metal bus seats and scrap metal and fled the area. The offender struck again on January 14 and 27. Detectives Piatt and Chavez tracked the vehicle to a location around Bridge and Goff and were able to have field officers stop the vehicle. The driver was charged with larceny over $2,500.
- Open Space Unit officers logged 1,321 hours of patrol on everything from foot and vehicle patrol to ATV, bike and Hovercraft. Open Space officers issued 179 misdemeanor citations ranging from littering, animal restraint, glass containers, illegal camping, parking, and traffic violations. Open Space officers attended community events and made significant contacts with 996 visitors to open space areas.

- Officers in the Horse Mounted Unit had approximately 1,000 citizen/business contacts throughout January while on neighborhood patrols and at community events which were quite extensive during the holiday season.

Northwest Area Command...

- On January 4, Northwest officers were dispatched to a restaurant to investigate a report by a female. The female claimed she had been tied up by her parents to prevent her from leaving her residence. Officers contacted her parents and determined that she was restrained because the female had caused significant damage to their residence. The female was subsequently arrested for domestic violence and found to be in possession of over 30 grams of crack cocaine.
- On January 16, officers were dispatched to a domestic violence call in which the offender, was having mental health issues and was hearing voices. The offender became violent and attacked his father. The offender struck his father in the head several times with a golf club, resulting in a fractured skull. The offender fled the scene, but was located in the area and was subsequently booked into the MDC.
- On January 20, Officer Alvidrez was dispatched to a northwest location to investigate a call from a neighbor that heard a child calling for help. Upon arrival, officers could hear a child inside the residence calling for help. Officers entered the residence and found a man incapacitated inside one of the bedrooms. The child was found unharmed and was calling for his parents to help him use the rest room. Officers secured the residence, and discovered that the man was in possession of a firearm. The firearm was located in his waistband during a pat down. Further investigation determined that the man was a convicted felon and he was placed under arrest. Subsequent to arrest, he was found to be in possession methamphetamine.
- Officer Daniel Webster was selected as the APD Uniformed Officer of the Year for 2013.
- On January 4, Officer Webster conducted a traffic stop. Officer Webster identified the driver and the juvenile passenger as having multiple outstanding felony warrants. Subsequent to arrest, Officer Webster located four grams of cocaine, four grams of hallucinogenic mushrooms, and drug trafficking paraphernalia.

- The Northwest Impact Team was called out to a local restaurant in response to a disturbance. Detectives learned that a Border Patrol agent had used his duty-issued firearm to remove his ex-wife from the restaurant. Detectives tracked the victim to a house in Rio Rancho, where the offender was arrested. Detectives recovered the weapon used and arrested the agent for unlawfully carrying a firearm into a liquor establishment.

Northeast Area Command...

- Team One's POP strategy for January was to saturate the motels along Menaul. Officers had continually been dispatched to the motels in response to auto burglaries. Team One officers patrolled all the motels in the area and made contact with citizens and business owners. The effort resulted in four handicap parking citations, and it reduced the number of reports taken at the motels in this area.
- On January 8, Officer Lund conducted surveillance with the help of Northeast Impact Team detectives on a possible stolen vehicle. Once the vehicle was mobile, Officer Lund conducted a traffic stop due to the vehicle having a stolen plate displayed. Occupants of the vehicle were arrested, and the vehicle was confirmed to be stolen from of Texas. An inventory of the stolen vehicle included a laptop. Upon obtaining a search warrant of the laptop, numerous white collar information to other victim's identities. Officers located approximately 15 victims.
- On January 23, Officer A. Cook assisted the Robbery Unit in the arrest of two individuals involved in a carjacking from the Northwest Area Command. Officer Cook was also responsible for the majority of the accomplishments in the Beat 431 tactical plan, making two felony arrests, one misdemeanor arrest, and seizing two vehicles.
- During January, several commercial robberies at restaurants and other small stores occurred in the Northeast Area Command. Several officers, including two officers from Team 4, assisted with a city-wide tactical plan to arrest the offenders. After several days, two offenders were arrested during a robbery. Detectives at the time believe the two offenders were responsible for at least 21 robberies.

- On January 31, Officer L. Neil and other officers from Team 4 responded to a house in Beat 413. The offender inside had three felony warrants for his arrest. While Officer L. Neil attempted to make contact with the offender at the front of the house, he fled out of the back. Officers quickly setup a small perimeter. Other assets including Air Support and K-9 responded. After two hours the offender was located on a rooftop two houses away.
- Officer Lucero responded to a fight in progress call where one male subject had hit another male in the face with a large brick, causing significant injuries. A nearby citizen stopped the offender and detained him until officers arrived. The citizen likely prevented the victim from being killed. Officer Lucero arrested the offender on felony aggravated battery charges.
- Officers Greer and Rauch were dispatched to a shoplifting call where subjects were attempting to steal a large amount of televisions from a large retailer. Officers Greer and Rauch located the vehicle and attempted to stop it. The driver fled, but immediately crashed the vehicle into an unoccupied home. The driver was booked on felony charges. It was later learned that the same offender was also stealing televisions from several other retailers in the area command.
- Northwest Impact Team detectives were dispatched a suspicious person call. The caller advised that a male subject was looking in through her windows and knocking on her neighbor's door. Officer Borunda arrived on scene and observed a male subject riding away from the location on a bicycle. The officer attempted a stop, but the male continued to pedal away and eventually ran on foot into a nearby house. Impact Team detectives contacted the male subject inside the house and arrested him. The male subject was identified and had three felony warrants for his arrest. The offender's backpack contained items commonly used to commit auto and residential burglaries.

Investigative Bureau

Scientific Evidence Division...

- The Major Crime Scene Team responded to three call outs in January.
- The Field Investigator Unit responded to 1,157 calls, wrote 855 reports, and collected 726 latent fingerprint cards during January.

- In January, the Photo Unit had 322 requests for service resulting in 12,031 prints produced as well as 45 discs.
- The New Mexico DNA Identification System (NMDIS), received 828 new convicted offender/arrestee DNA samples in January, with a cumulative total of nearly 96,500 collected. 734 samples were analyzed, data uploaded and searched in CODIS, with a cumulative total of over 90,000 searchable DNA profiles. As a result of the convicted offender/arrestee samples, 41 unsolved cases were matched to convicted offenders/arrestees, seven case-to-case matches were made, with a resulting total of 44 investigations being aided.
- The Latent Print Unit completed 1,557 cases in 2013, eclipsing last year's total of 715. 164 of the 1,557 were process-type cases. This massive increase in case work completion is due to a full complement of trained forensic scientists working in the specific unit and their devotion to their work.
- In January, Identification Technicians and 1 rehire officer supported the following backgrounds: 86 case dispositions; 47 employment; 24 firearms; 92 FBI and 38 CODIS requests. 278 RAPs and photos were distributed; 25 new APD applicants were fingerprinted; 1,585 fingerprints were classified in AFIS; and 1,804 new and old arrests were processed into the Tiburon criminal history record.
- In January, Evidence Technicians and one rehire officer received 4,551 evidence items, duplicated 1,734 audio/video recordings and supported 75 pretrial viewings. Efforts to reduce inventory resulted in 148 items returned to owners; 7,086 items disposed, and $26.01 was recovered from auction income. Staff processed 6,232 case disposition transactions into the evidence history.

Property Crimes Division...

- On January 13, the Auto Theft Unit conducted an operation in the Southwest Area Command. Detectives located an active stolen vehicle. The unit set up surveillance on the vehicle and a short time later two subjects entered the vehicle and attempted to leave the area. They were taken into custody. While searching one of the offenders, detectives located a bag of methamphetamine. Detectives also learned that he had been seen pulling a trailer earlier in the morning while driving the stolen vehicle.

Detectives also discovered that a female victim traveling to California had stopped at a local hotel and had reported her trailer as stolen. Detectives were able to locate the stolen trailer and two additional stolen vehicles. The vehicles and all of the stolen property were returned to the victims. Evidence found linked all the stolen vehicles and trailers to the two offenders. Both were booked into the MDC.

- On January 7, the Auto Theft Unit conducted an auto theft operation in the Southeast Area Command. During the operation, the unit located an active stolen truck. Surveillance was set up on the vehicle and a short time later a male and female entered the vehicle. Unit detectives were able to take both into custody. Both suspects admitted to knowing the vehicle was stolen and were also found to be in possession of a stolen UNM computer. UNM Police arrived and took possession of the computer. The truck was returned to the owner and the two suspects were booked into the MDC.
- On January 31, the Auto Theft Unit was conducting an operation in the Valley Area Command. While conducting patrol, unit detectives located a stolen vehicle in a parking lot. Surveillance was then set up on the vehicle and a short time later a male and a young child walked out and got into the vehicle. Detectives were able to place the adult male into custody. A search yielded an ounce of methamphetamine and an assault rifle. During an interview, the offender admitted to knowing the vehicle was stolen and was only trying to take his son to school. The offender was booked into the MDC.
- On January 29, officers were dispatched to a southeast location in response to a home invasion call. Burglary Unit detectives were also in the area and responded to the call to assist in the investigation. An 84 year old male stated that he was asleep in the southwest bedroom of his home when he woke up and found two unknown males in his house. One of the males was holding a large black revolver that was pointed at his head. The owner said that the suspects went through his wallet and ransacked his house. The back door to the garage was kicked in. There was also a broken window at the rear of the residence. The owner advised that the males held him against his will for approximately one hour. One of the males grabbed a cord from a radio and tried to tie his hands together while holding him down. The owner was able to stop the male from tying his hands together. At that point, the male took the cord and tried to put it around the owner's neck. The owner believed the male was trying to strangle him with the cord. The males then took the keys to the owner's vehicle. On January 30, detectives were forwarded a Criminalistics Latent Fingerprint Report from APD Fingerprint Analyst K. Rubi which identified one of the offenders. Based on the information, detectives wrote and obtained an arrest warrant for the offender. On February 1, he was arrested in the Southeast Area Command.

- On January 7, officers were dispatched to a southwest location in reference to a residential burglary. While en route to the call, dispatch advised that the victim was following the offenders near the area of Sunset Gardens and Townsend. The victim advised that when he came to work on the house he found the front door had been damaged and there was a male subject pulling a compressor and drill out of the front door. The victim confronted the offender who went to the front door and yelled for everyone to get out. Four other subjects ran out of the house carrying several bags and a red tool box. Detectives observed three males and two females walking and approached the individuals in their cars. As they did this, one of the individuals threw an object over a wooden fence into a backyard. The victim positively identified the subjects as the people that broke into his residence and stole his property. During interviews, all of the subjects admitted to the burglary.
- While working the Nob Hill Tactical Plan, detectives observed a male subject vandalizing businesses with spray paint. The offender was taken into custody and confessed to tagging businesses along Central Avenue. Other members of the Burglary Unit confirmed numerous sites and each individual business was contacted and a report was generated. The case was compiled and submitted to the District Attorney. 32 different businesses were vandalized from San Mateo to Girard.
- On January 15, a City trailer was deployed in the southeast area of the city with city property in it. A man got into the trailer and took the city property. He was tracked to his residence. Detectives located the man as he was going back and forth to the vehicle that he had put the stolen property in. Detectives attempted to arrest the man but he resisted and had to be tased in order to take him into custody. The offender was on federal probation for bank robbery.

- On January 22, a male and female broke into a City-owned vehicle. The male attempted to steal the car by breaking the steering column. He also damaged the console before they stole a City-owned laptop that was in the vehicle. They were tracked and located in the foothills parked behind an apartment complex. Both subjects were arrested and booked.
- CNAU detectives made numerous arrests in January, including some highly noted property crime offenders, one of which was wanted for three felony warrants for burglary. He was located and arrested on the warrants along with possession of heroin. The information of this arrest was also passed along to CYFD due to three children being in the offender's custody during the time of apprehension. The property management was also made aware of the incident due to the offender living on the premises and not being on the lease.
- CNAU Detectives conducted a tactical plan in Beat 523 of the Foothills Area Command. The beat has consistently been a property crimes hotspot as determined by Crime Analysis. During the tactical plan, two individuals with felony warrants were located and arrested. Detectives issued six citations. Three new problem properties were identified. The management of an apartment complex was contacted to follow up on a felony warrant made the same day by ROP Unit detectives.
- Organized Crime Unit (OCU) detectives identified two offenders utilizing stolen credit card information and subsequently open numerous fraudulent accounts at retail stores throughout the metro area. The pair were able to defraud the stores for over $2,000. OCU detectives located and arrested both subjects.
- Foothills Area Command officers and Organized Crime Unit detectives apprehended a man in reference to numerous walkout/push outs at stores in Albuquerque and Santa Fe. He was primarily selecting computers, security DVR systems, DVDs, televisions, and other electronic equipment. The total value of thefts exceeded $12,000. The man admitted to fencing the merchandise on the street.
- Southwest Area Command officers and OCU detectives apprehended two females and a male for fraud after they attempted to cash a stolen check in the amount of $839. A search warrant served on their vehicle and personal cell phones resulted in the recovery of stolen personal information to include driver's licenses and social security cards.

- OCU detectives initiated surveillance at a southwest location and subsequently contacted a suspect who had been identified as a Most Wanted Property Crime Offender. The suspect had seven outstanding felony warrants for property crime and drug-related offenses and two misdemeanor warrants for assault. Within a four month period, the suspect was responsible for multiple property crimes committed against numerous retail sector partners. The value of the property taken in these crimes exceeded $5,000.
- The Metal Theft Detail initiated and completed two tactical plans in response to repeated metal theft incidents. The first tactical plan was conducted in the Foothills Area Command along the Juan Tabo Boulevard corridor between Lomas Boulevard and Montgomery Boulevard. A second tactical plan was conducted in the Valley Area Command and was primarily focused at the businesses located along 2nd Street NW.
- Pawn Shop detectives met with several gold and silver entities and a legislative committee regarding the importance of ensuring that all gold and silver entities report to the Leads Online database. The meetings with legislative committees will continue until the completion of the 2014 New Mexico legislative session.
- The Metal Theft Detail purchased and received four infrared cameras to be utilized for the identification of metal theft offenders. The cameras were deployed at seven different locations, resulting in several photographs of offenders committing acts of metal theft. Detectives are following up on the photos and will attempt to identify the offenders.
- On January 16, Acting Sergeant R. Crawford sent a forgery case to the District Attorney's Office in reference to multiple subjects cashing stolen/forged checks. During the investigation, Detective Crawford was able to identify four subjects that cashed stolen/forged checks from the a victim's stolen checkbook. The subjects were all identified using Albuquerque Police Department databases. One of the suspects cashed the stolen/forged check in Los Lunas. A copy of the case file was also provided to

- the Los Lunas Police Department for their investigative purposes.
- On January 24, Detectives Weber and Natewa arrested a woman on an arrest warrant obtained by Detective Weber in reference to identification theft and fraud. The woman used her former partner's information to obtain a New Mexico driver's license and open multiple credit accounts. Detective Weber identified at least 23 counts of identity theft and multiple counts of forgery through an extensive investigation with many financial institutions. The arrest occurred at Metropolitan Court with the assistance of Metro Court officers.
- In January, the value of cases cleared by the White Collar Crime Unit was $301,000.

Criminal Investigations Division...

- The Homicide Unit responded to three call outs in January. One of these call-outs was a homicide, one a major case, and one an in-custody death. The total number of UCR homicides in Albuquerque is one through the end of January. The Unit currently has 15 active cases.
