Officers and Southeast Impact Team detectives served a search warrant on the apartment and located a large amount of marijuana and a police officer's duty weapon which had been stolen. The offender was identified as an active gang member.
- Detective Moya was called by Officer Holets in reference to an aggravated battery with a deadly weapon. Officer Holets advised that a male had been severely beaten with a bat by his neighbor. The victim had a shattered left eye socket, loss of vision in his left eye and a shattered nose. Detective Moya made contact with the suspect in this case. After a short interview, the suspect stated that he was agitated and mad at his neighbor over previous situations. The suspect then went home for lunch from work and confronted the victim and struck him in the face and then in the back. The suspect then went back to work and threw the bat into the dumpster
- on the property. After obtaining a search warrant, the bat was retrieved and tagged into APD Evidence. The suspect was subsequently arrested for attempted second degree murder, and tampering with evidence.
- Officers were dispatched to an apartment in response to a call regarding a juvenile. The caller advised that three kids were not being allowed to enter the apartment by the subjects inside the residence and that they were possibly smoking marijuana. Upon arrival, officers contacted one of the men in the apartment. During a protective sweep of the apartment, officers observed a baggie of marijuana easily accessible by the children who were 2, 4, and 12 years of age. A search warrant was drafted for the residence. During the execution of the search warrant, a gallon baggie of individually packaged marijuana was found. Inside the microwave, it appeared as if crack cocaine was being manufactured. The microwave plate tested positive for cocaine. A stolen firearm was also recovered. The firearm was stolen from a Lea County Sheriff's Deputy. The man was charged with three counts of child abuse; possession of marijuana with intent to distribute; possession of a controlled substance with intent to distribute; possession of a stolen firearm; felon in possession of a firearm; and possession of drug paraphernalia.

The staff had suspected foul play and started a surveillance system. The staff reviewed the footage from the night before and observed the suspect getting mad and abusing the victim while she sat on the couch. He then picked up a sofa pillow and covered her face with it, but released it shortly after. The suspect then picked up her walker and threatened to hit her with it. Responding officers observed the footage and set up surveillance and waited for the suspect to return. When he pulled into the parking lot, Detective Cabrera made contact with him and placed him under arrest for kidnapping and aggravated battery with a deadly weapon. The victim was suffering from several mental handicaps and could not make a statement due to her age. Detective Cabrera was able to get a copy of the video footage and tag it into evidence.

Two weeks later, the victim was able to communicate to Detective Gonterman that her mother beat her in the head and body with a hammer. She then met with the victim's step-dad outside the home and retrieved a tire iron. The mother returned and continued to beat her with the tire iron until she was unconscious. The victim also told Detective Gonterman that a month earlier her mother pulled the oxygen off of her and told her she should not be able to live. Inconsistent statements between the victim's mother and step-father also supported the evidence that they were trying to kill the victim and didn't think she would live to tell what happened to her. An arrest warrant was also obtained for the victim's step-father. Since the victim was unable to leave the hospital, a victim's advocate went to the victim and helped her with an emergency restraining order and provided her with other resources.
