APD Notables... Field Services Bureau

Field Services Bureau - East Southeast Area Command...

- In November, the Southeast Area Command had 6,214 calls for service, wrote 1,142 reports, and issued 317 citations. There were 139 felony arrests, 145 misdemeanor arrests, and 21 driving while intoxicated (DWI) arrests. No community meetings were attended.
- On November 5, Officer F. Hernandez and Recruit Officer Weinstein were travelling behind a vehicle which had an obscured license plate. They conducted a traffic stop and made contact with the driver. When the driver stepped out of the vehicle, Officer Weinstein observed a handgun in the door panel. The offender also admitted that there was another gun under the front seat. The passenger was found to have a warrant and was arrested. Upon checking the Vehicle Identification Number (VIN), it was determined the vehicle was stolen. During an inventory of the vehicle, methamphetamine was also located. The offenders were booked into the Metropolitan Detention Center (MDC) for receiving/transferring a stolen vehicle, possession with intent to distribute methamphetamine and an outstanding felony warrant.
- On November 19, Officer B. Aragon responded to a residential burglary in progress. Upon arrival, he found a 70-year-old victim holding the suspect at gunpoint. The victim's 66-year-old wife also had a handgun aimed at the suspect. Officer Aragon took the offender immediately into custody. According to the victim, he came out to his garage and observed the offender loading items from his garage into a vehicle. He verbally confronted the offender who refused to leave and continued loading the items into the vehicle. At this point, the victim went inside and grabbed his shotgun and had his wife get her pistol. They then confronted the suspect forcing him to his knees until police arrived. The offender was advised of his rights and he admitted to stealing the items. The offender was booked into the Metropolitan Detention Center (MDC) for residential burglary.
- On November 5, Officer J. Franco located a vehicle that matched the description of a stolen vehicle from earlier in the night. Officers contacted the driver and took him into custody.
- During an inventory search of the vehicle, burglary tools were located along with an altered temporary tag for the vehicle. The driver was booked into the Metropolitan Detention Center (MDC) for receiving/transferring a stolen vehicle, possession of burglary tools and false evidence of title/registration.
- On November 9, Officer J. Malecki was dispatched to a residence in response to a report of a male attempting to gain access into the caller's home. Officer Malecki located the male outside the residence. The offender had recently been arrested for domestic violence against the caller's sister and was not supposed to be at the home. Officers arrived before he was able to gain access and found he had an outstanding felony warrant.
- On November 23, Officers R. Casaus and F. Duran were dispatched to an auto burglary in progress. Upon arrival, officers observed the offender in the victim's vehicle in the driver seat. Officers arrested the offender without incident and located numerous burglary tools in a backpack on the driver's floorboard. The steering column was slightly damaged. The offender was booked into the Metropolitan Detention Center (MDC) for auto burglary and an outstanding felony warrant in reference to an auto burglary that occurred on November 7, 2015.
- On November 2, Officer R. DeBuck participated in a threat assessment on a student who suffers from schizophrenia and has experienced homicidal thoughts. Officer DeBuck was successful in starting the process of having the student removed to a more structured environment.
- On November 5, Officer B. Daffron observed a vehicle displaying a stolen license plate. Officer Daffron initiated a traffic stop and the driver was identified and taken into custody. After searching the passenger's belongings, she was found to be in possession of a firearm and controlled substances - cocaine and methamphetamine. The passenger also had an outstanding felony warrant for her arrest. Both subjects were transported to the Prisoner Transport Center. As Officer Daffron was escorting both females into the center, the suspect driver escaped from custody. The investigation identified the registered owner of the stolen vehicle and she provided a written statement detailing she did not know the offender or give her permission to use the vehicle. Officer Burt learned the suspect had plead guilty to a previous charge of receiving and transferring stolen property making this her second offense. Officer Burt obtained an arrest warrant for the suspect and she was caught and arrested. The offender has since been indicted for this offense.

Northeast Area Command...

- In November, the Northeast Area Command had 10,429 calls for service, wrote 1,900 reports, and issued 964 citations. There were 148 felony arrests, 292 misdemeanor arrests, 26 driving while intoxicated (DWI) arrests, and 130 warrants issued. Nine community meetings were attended.
- On November 11, Officers J. Barnard, P. Martin, W. Velasquez, M. Espinoza, and Acting Sergeant Ronzone responded to an alarm call at a local business. The alarm company was able to access live video from inside the business. Officers arrived and immediately established a containment perimeter. The subjects initially tried to leave the business but then complied with orders after realizing they were surrounded. Both offenders were booked into the Metropolitan Detention Center (MDC) on multiple felony charges.
- In November, Team 7 officers were assigned to conduct high visibility patrol, field contacts, and appropriate enforcement action at two apartment complexes. Officers checked license plates, patrolled the area, and made contact with several subjects. In total, Team 7 officers responded to 34 calls for service, conducted 12 on-sites in or near the area, made seven arrests, and forwarded 29 field contact cards to the Northeast Impact Team.
- On November 27, Officers Guerrero and Lujan were dispatched to a domestic violence call. Upon arrival, they found a female seeking refuge in a passing motorist's vehicle and a male in the immediate area holding a two-week-old child. The investigation revealed that a violent domestic dispute started in their apartment. The female attempted to flee a number of times only to be pulled back by her boyfriend. She escaped his custody and fled down the street where he caught her and began dragging her back towards the apartment, while holding the newborn. He also left three other small children unattended in the apartment while this was happening. He was taken into custody without incident and charged with false imprisonment and multiple counts of child abuse.

- On November 12, Officer J. Lopez-Shook stopped a vehicle driving in an aggressive and unsafe manner. The driver provided a name that could not be verified. However, Officer J. Lopez-Shook recognized the driver from an intelligence bulletin that was disseminated regarding the subject having felony warrants. Officer J. Lopez-Shook verified the true identity of the driver and confirmed he was lying about who he was. The driver was arrested for two outstanding felony arrest warrants and one misdemeanor arrest warrant.
- On November 8, Officer A. Sedler was dispatched to a local store in response to a shoplifting call. Upon arriving, a male ran out of the loss prevention office and fled in a vehicle. Officer A. Sedler attempted to stop the vehicle, but the suspect fled. The store's loss prevention associate advised officers that there was a female in the store that was selecting merchandise with the male that ran out of store. The female was being watched on security surveillance cameras at the self-check out. The subject was scanning merchandise with a bar code label affixed to the back of her cell phone that did not match merchandise she was purchasing. The suspect would place an item over the cell phone, scan it, and then bag it. The total amount paid for the items was $39 but the actual total for the items should have been $240. The offender was transported to the Metropolitan Detention Center without incident.
- Between August 8 and October 1, Officer H. Guerrero investigated a fraud case in which a woman had a checkbook stolen and her checks fraudulently cashed at a local bank. It was confirmed that an unknown male subject had cashed the check. Officer H. Guerrero contacted the bank security office and bank manager for video evidence linking the male. The name used on the check was run through police databases and the picture imaged matched. A felony warrant was issued for the male and he has been subsequently arrested.
- On November 30, Detective Roach was investigating and trying to apprehend a subject that was known to have an outstanding warrant for her arrest from a Grand Jury indictment for auto burglary, auto theft and aggravated eluding. The offender was highlighted by the media for her high number of arrests for felony property violent crimes. Information was learned about her movements. Detective Roach conducted surveillance on one of her associates. When the subject arrived, Detective Roach took her into custody without incident. The subject is also being linked to eight additional auto burglaries.

- On November 13, Officer D. Kisser was dispatched to an accident with injuries. Dispatch advised that the driver of the vehicle at fault was possibly intoxicated and had fled on foot. During Officer Kisser's investigation, he observed a female at a nearby gas station matching the description of the alleged driver. Officer Kisser, with the assistance of other officers arrested the female.

Foothills Area Command...

- In November, the Foothills Area Command had 5,782 calls for service, wrote 1,099 reports, and issued 1,051 citations. There were 167 felony arrests, 89 misdemeanor arrests, and 23 driving while intoxicated (DWI) arrests. Fifteen community meetings were attended.
- On November 3, Officers R. White, D. Byrd, and Recruit Officer C. Willsey were dispatched to a call involving a subject who shot into a business as he attempted to shoot another vehicle in the parking lot. The subject fled from the scene in a small sized moving truck. An attempt to locate was broadcast citywide. The moving truck was located by Southeast Area Command officers at a convenience store. Officer Byrd positively identified the male as the suspect who caused the disturbance at the store based on the surveillance footage. The gun used in the crime was located inside the convenience store. The subject attempted to hide the weapon upon police arrival. He was arrested for aggravated assault with a deadly weapon, shooting at a dwelling and motor vehicle, tampering with evidence, and possession of a controlled substance (pills).
- On November 20, Sergeant S. Lockey, Officers C. Elliott and L. Jaramillo responded to a suspicious person call. The caller advised dispatch that he observed a male subject removing tires from a vehicle that was parked in a driveway of a residence. Upon arrival, a vehicle was observed missing three tires and was being held up by bricks. Another vehicle was located across the street with two subjects inside. After several minutes of giving them announcements, the two subjects came out and were taken into custody. Two of the victim's tires were located inside the offenders' vehicle. During the investigation it was discovered that there were two more suspects that ran from the scene prior to the officers' arrival.

The two outstanding suspects were caught the same day by Impact detectives. Four subjects were arrested for auto burglary, felony larceny, and tampering with evidence. After further investigation, the subjects admitted to other auto burglaries at a local bar.

- On November 26, Officers Simmons and Marquez were dispatched to a residence in response to a crime stoppers tip of a wanted fugitive staying at an apartment. Officers made contact with the apartment occupant and located the subject who had two felony probation violations. He was taken into custody without incident and transported to the Metropolitan Detention Center.
- On November 13, Officers Mayfield, Elliott, and Schmelzer were dispatched to a suspicious person call. The reporting party observed the male subject standing in her carport area. The reporting party yelled to the subject that she could see him. At this point, the suspect fled on foot. Officer Elliott found the subject behind a nearby apartment complex. Officer Elliott made contact with the subject and found he had a felony warrant. The subject was arrested for the warrant and searched. Officer Schmelzer found a glass pipe in a pocket in the subject's pants. The backpack the subject was wearing also contained 20 sets of keys and 11 garage door openers. There were also three credit cards belonging to the reporting party. The suspect was booked on the warrant and drug paraphernalia.
- On November 18, officers were dispatched to an armed robbery at a local wireless cellular store. Upon arrival, it was determined two subjects had robbed the store at gunpoint and taken several items, including phones. As the crime was investigated, the phones were tracked through global positioning system (GPS). The offenders were located and taken into custody.
- On November 15, officers were called to a residence in response to an adult male exhibiting erratic behavior which was observed by several neighbors. As officers approached, the subject armed himself with a firearm and retreated to his backyard. Neighbors reported hearing shots fired. The subject made numerous attempts to induce officers into shooting him or taking some form of force. Officers on scene used restraint and the subject was subsequently taken into custody with no further incident.
- On November 8, Officers Rogillio, Shultz and Denerstein responded to a disturbance in which a male subject was shooting a gun outside the home. During the event, officers established a perimeter around the area and made several attempts to get the male subject to comply with officers' commands. The male subject walked in and out of the home several times and refused to comply with commands. At one point, the male was seen with what appeared to be a shotgun. The male subject was verbally combative, yelling at officers that he wanted to fight and threw items at them. The subject threw a handgun outside the home and advised that he had a rifle and shotgun inside the home. The subject went in the house and came back out holding a baseball bat. Eventually, the officers got the male into custody. The male subject was transported to the University of New Mexico Hospital for a mental health evaluation.

Field Services Bureau - West Valley Area Command...

- In November, the Valley Area Command had 6,868 calls for service, wrote 1,277 reports and issued 646 citations. There were 103 felony arrests, 112 misdemeanor arrests, and 32 driving while intoxicated (DWI) arrests. Thirteen community meetings were attended.
- On November 1, Officer B. Melendrez was dispatched to a car dealership in response to a larceny in progress. According to the caller, whom was monitoring the property from out of state, three males were on the property stealing tires from a tire bin located on the lot. The caller advised that the males fled southbound through the parking lot toward the vehicle storage area and were last seen jumping a wall to the surrounding property. Officers established a perimeter and the males were located hiding underneath a large moving truck that was parked directly behind the property. The investigation showed that the males broke the lock to the tire bin gate and loaded 16 tires into their vehicle. They were charged with commercial burglary and conspiracy.
- On November 26, Officers T. Wickens and D. White were dispatched to a residence in response to a crime stoppers tip informing police that a male subject who had outstanding felony warrants was at that residence. When officers arrived, the homeowner gave police permission to search the home for the male. Announcements were made and a male exited a bedroom. The subject was identified and placed under arrest for the felony warrants without incident.
- On November 1, Officer C. Knight conducted a stop after observing a traffic infraction. After the vehicle yielded to the emergency equipment, the driver exited the vehicle and challenged Officer C. Knight. Officer C. Knight verbally persuaded the driver to obey his commands. The driver was identified and confirmed to have two felony warrants for his arrest.
- On November 13, Officer Quade responded to a wrong way driver. While in route, dispatch advised a truck had crashed near the area and the driver had attempted to carjack a University of New Mexico bus. Officers apprehended the suspect at the crash site. The investigation showed the offender had stolen the truck earlier in the morning and robbed a convenience store before the crash. The subject was arrested and booked for auto theft, robbery, and attempted carjacking.
- On November 17, Officers Quade, Llamas, and Lujan responded to a suspect shooting a gun. Upon arrival, officers located the suspect and took him into custody. The officers also recovered the handgun stashed in a nearby yard. The suspect was on probation for murder. He was arrested and booked for felon in possession of a firearm/tampering with evidence.
- On November 21, Officer I. Hernandez responded to an aggravated assault and battery call at a local business. The manager advised that two males were stealing property and as they were attempting to leave the store, loss prevention members contacted them. At this time, both males pointed firearms at the employees and fled. An unidentified citizen observed the event, followed the subjects, and contacted dispatch with updated information. Air support was dispatched and they located the getaway vehicle. Air support began directing officers to the location where the males exited the vehicle and fled on foot. Officer Hernandez chased down one of the offenders and apprehend him with assistance from Bernalillo County Sheriff's Office (BCSO) deputies and other Valley Area Command units. The second offender was also located and taken into custody by a combined effort of APD officers and BCSO deputies.
- On November 5, officers were dispatched to a possible domestic violence call occurring in a moving vehicle. Officers were advised by the caller that the driver of the vehicle was not allowing his female passenger to exit the vehicle. The driver was also weaving in and out of traffic and was traveling in excess of 100 miles per hour on the freeway. Officers located the suspect vehicle as it pulled into a parking lot. Due to the suspect's erratic behavior and not allowing the passenger to exit the vehicle, a high risk traffic stop was conducted. Once the female passenger was safe and the suspect was taken into custody, officers conducted a pat down of the suspect. Officers located a large knife concealed in the suspect's front pocket and five individually packaged bags containing methamphetamine. Officers mirandized the suspect and he admitted to "cooking" the methamphetamine himself, but said it was for personal use. The suspect was booked into the Metropolitan Detention Center (MDC) without incident.

- On November 8, Officers J. McDonnell and P. Olivas were dispatched to an armed robbery call. Upon arrival, officers saw the suspect crossing an intersection. The suspect attempted to enter a gas station but was apprehended by the officers. Further investigation revealed enough evidence to arrest the suspect for felony armed robbery. The subject was transported to the hospital for a knife laceration to his hand. Once released, he was booked into the Metropolitan Detention Center (MDC).

Southwest Area Command...

- In November, the Southwest Area Command had 5,349 calls for service, wrote 1,112 reports, and issued 567 citations. There were 70 felony arrests, 79 misdemeanor arrests, 29 driving while intoxicated (DWI) arrests and 25 warrants issued. Five community meetings were attended.
- On November 10, Sergeant Armijo located a stolen vehicle. When Sergeant Armijo attempted to conduct a traffic stop, the occupants fled the area. Officer Garcia located the vehicle and the driver when the driver attempted to abandon the vehicle in the neighbor's driveway. The offender had a large amount of methamphetamine on his person. During the investigation, officers determined that the vehicle identification number (VIN) was tampered with. The vehicle was towed for a full VIN inspection.
- On November 20, Officers Perez and Brooks were dispatched to a rollover car accident. Upon arrival it was determined the vehicle involved was stolen. Officer Perez located one of the three offenders shortly after the crash. Officer Perez remained on scene and located the two outstanding offenders. The Auto Theft Unit was contacted and took over the investigation.

- On November 15, Officers Sanchez and Foulk were dispatched to a residential burglary. The homeowner confronted a burglar in his garage and chased him from the residence. The officers located the offender at a nearby residence where the victim had seen him enter. The male was arrested for residential and auto burglary. The stolen property was returned to the victim.
- On November 19, Officer Apodaca was called to a local store to investigate a shoplifting. During the investigation, Officer Apodaca was shown video of the vehicle in which the shoplifting suspects arrived in. Officer Apodaca located the vehicle in the parking lot and ran the vehicle through the National Crime Information Center (NCIC). NCIC identified the vehicle as being stolen. The two subjects were charged with shoplifting and receiving and transferring of a stolen motor vehicle. Auto Theft detectives were called and the two subjects provided information on several other robberies and burglaries which allowed several of these cases to be cleared.
- On November 17, Officers Sanchez and Garcia were dispatched to a local fast food restaurant in response to a suspicious male subject with a gun in his waistband. Officers Garcia and Sanchez confronted the subject inside the restaurant and he got into a confrontation with the officers. After a short struggle, the officers were able to take the subject into custody. The subject was in possession of a stolen firearm.
- On November 26, Sergeant Baca was dispatched to a local store in response to a possible drunk driver. The original caller, a store employee, stated that two males had entered the store and went into the liquor section. Employees stated they could see the males were highly intoxicated so they refused to sell to them. When the males exited the store, the employees watched as the two males entered a vehicle, one as the driver. The call stated the driver was having trouble unlocking the car door or getting the keys in the door. When Sergeant Baca arrived he was flagged down by the store employees who pointed to the suspect vehicle which was still in one of the south facing parking spaces. Sergeant Baca pulled in behind the vehicle and noticed the vehicle was running with the lights on. Sergeant Baca approached the driver's side window and contacted the driver. The sergeant could smell a strong odor of alcohol emitting from the driver's breath as he spoke to him.

Sergeant Baca asked the driver if he had been drinking which he denied. Sergeant Baca asked him for his driver's license and vehicle papers. The driver gave Sergeant Baca his license but would not give him the vehicle information. When Sergeant Baca ran the driver's license information, he was advised that the driver's license was revoked/suspended. The suspect was booked into the Metropolitan Detention Center (MDC) and charged with aggravated driving while intoxicated (DWI) and driving on a revoked license.

- In November, officers received a call in response to a road rage investigation. Comments on the call indicated a drunk driver pointed a firearm at the occupants of another vehicle. The driver of the other vehicle took down the license number of the offender's vehicle. Officer Vallejo contacted the victim and she indicated that she felt threatened after getting into a road-rage dispute with another driver. She also had her child present in the vehicle. Sergeant George located the vehicle and initiated a traffic stop. Detective Griego interviewed the driver and he admitted to having a handgun in the vehicle.

Northwest Area Command...

- In November, the Northwest Area Command had 5,139 calls for service, wrote 929 reports, and issued 828 citations. There were 36 felony arrests, 104 misdemeanor arrests, 20 driving while intoxicated (DWI) arrests; and 32 warrants issued. Ten community meetings were attended.
- On November 6, Officer C. Holmes was dispatched to a hit and run accident. As Officer Holmes was in route, he was advised by dispatch that the same vehicle had caused another accident nearby. Upon arrival, officers found the person who had caused both accidents had her six-month old daughter in the car with her. According to the victims and witnesses, the female was driving recklessly and intentionally ran a light at an intersection hitting the victim's car. The female suspect told officers that her sister was coming to pick up the baby. A short time later, a vehicle arrived on scene with an unknown driver. The suspect ran to and entered the vehicle with the baby. The vehicle then fled from the scene. Officer Holmes issued a felony arrest warrant on the subject for child abuse. She was arrested the following day without incident at her workplace. It was confirmed that the subject had a revoked driver's license.

- On November 15, Officer Morant and Sergeant Barela were dispatched to a priority one call where the caller stated she witnessed a male subject who was wanted for several felonies enter an apartment. Officers verified the information and identified the male subject. The suspect was confirmed to have a felony warrant for aggravated battery/domestic violence for stomping on his girlfriend's head, almost killing her. He was also wanted for shooting at a person in the South Valley. Officers took the subject into custody after finding him hiding in the kitchen pantry of the apartment.
- On November 20, Officers H. Alvidrez and A. Hoisington along with Sergeants A. Sedler and R. Hilger responded to a welfare check call. The caller stated she received a suicide note on her vehicle from her ex-husband and was concerned because she had noticed a rope in his house the week prior. She indicated he had been really depressed. Upon arrival, officers knocked on the door, but did not get a response. As officers were looking through the windows, Officer Alvidrez noticed a male matching the description of the subject inside the residence. It appeared the subject was hanging from a rope attached to the railing on the stairs. The officers were able to make entry into the home through a bedroom window. Officer Hoisington attempted to communicate with the subject but got no response. As Sergeant Sedler stepped outside to get assistance from the Crisis Intervention Unit (CIU), the subject kicked the stool out from underneath him and he fell. The rope was immediately tight around his neck and officers rushed to assist him. Officer Hoisington lifted the subject up by his legs while Officer Alvidrez cut him down. After the subject was secure on the ground, the rope was removed from the individual's neck. The subject was conscious and breathing when medical personnel arrived on scene. He was transported to the hospital by ambulance. Officers Alvidrez and Hoisington were nominated for the Life Saving Award for this call.
- On November 8, Officers J. Wharton and E. Ibarra responded to a possible stolen vehicle call. The vehicle fled and Officer Wharton disengaged. However, almost immediately after the vehicle fled it hit a curb and the driver abandoned the vehicle. Officer Wharton got the driver into custody. The offender was charged with five felonies and the stolen vehicle was returned to its rightful owner.

- On November 17, field officers conducted a traffic stop and discovered the vehicle had been reported embezzled by a local car rental store. During an inventory check of the vehicle, officers discovered a large amount of mail that was not addressed to the suspect. The vehicle was sealed and Impact detectives conducted a search warrant which revealed several items that were taken from auto burglaries in the Rio Rancho area. The property and mail was returned to the victims. The driver was identified as a suspect in two auto burglaries in the Northwest. Detectives worked with the Rio Rancho Police Department who also filed an arrest warrant for the suspect for his involvement in the Rio Rancho burglaries.
- On November 20, field officers were dispatched to a kidnapping and carjacking. The officers contacted the victim who reported being held hostage in a house for over 24 hours, but managed to escape through a window. The victim told officers he was forced at gun point to withdraw money from an ATM then blindfolded and transported to a house. The victim said the offenders took his vehicle and was left in the house with one male subject guarding him. Detectives identified the offenders and obtained felony warrants for the offenders. They also located the victim's car in Rio Rancho.
