FIELD SERVICES BUREAU-EAST

Southeast Area Command...

- On November 2, Officer Groff was on targeted patrol of a parking lot frequently used by auto theft offenders as a dump site for stolen vehicles when he observed a vehicle parked improperly. Upon conducting a license plate inquiry, he found the vehicle was stolen. With the assistance of other Southeast officers, Officer Groff detained two subjects attempting to walk away from the vehicle. Officer Groff conducted an investigation and arrested one of the subjects for receiving and transferring a stolen motor vehicle. The other subject was arrested for an outstanding felony warrant.
- On November 11, Recruit Officer K. Salido, Field Training Officer S. Lowell and several other officers were dispatched to a call of a male subject firing a handgun and pointing the firearm at people. Officers located the male subject and a female at a bus stop. Officers developed a plan to apprehend and take the subjects into custody before they got on a bus. Officers successfully apprehended, detained and interrogated the suspects. Recruit Officer Salido arrested and booked the male on charges of aggravated assault with a deadly weapon and felon in possession of a firearm. The female was booked on charges of conspiracy and concealing a deadly weapon.
- On November 23, Officers J. Brionez and S. Romero were dispatched to a domestic violence call. When officers arrived, they spoke with a young domestic violence victim who had a history of not pursuing charges against the offender. The victim's mother, who only spoke Spanish, relayed her frustration of her daughter's refusal to cooperate with law enforcement and press charges against the offender. Officer Brionez got the victim to complete a written statement including information on the offender. Officers got a warrant issued on the offender for aggravated battery.
- On November 1, Officers Ledford and Kesler responded to a battery call where a female was stabbed in the head with a knife. Officers responded and located the possible offender nearby. The female offender was positively identified and arrested for aggravated battery with a deadly weapon, tampering with evidence, and two felony warrants. The victim did not suffer life threatening injuries.
- On November 30, officers were dispatched to a male subject who climbed onto a wall which separates I-40 and a residential area. He wanted to jump off the wall to commit suicide. Officers arrived on scene and blocked all east bound traffic on I-40 as well as the surrounding residential area. Crisis Intervention trained officers made contact with the male and talked him down from the wall. He was transported to the hospital for evaluation.

- On November 28, Officers L. Rubio-Gonzalez, B. Willsey and C. Schneider were dispatched to a suspicious vehicle call. When they arrived, they made contact with three subjects inside the vehicle. The officers noticed a sawed off shotgun in the rear of the vehicle. During the investigation, officers also found a bag with a crystal rock (methamphetamine) in the driver's door. It was discovered the shotgun was reported stolen and had a gang name etched on it. The driver of the vehicle was charged with trafficking a controlled substance.

Northeast Area Command...

- On November 17, Officer M. Benavidez, Crisis Outreach and Support Team (COAST), St. Martins, Healthcare for the Homeless (needle exchange), Blue Cross/Blue Shield, Molina Health Care, First Nations and Goodwill were involved in a community outreach initiative at a local park. During this community outreach initiative, contact was made with eight homeless individuals living in the park who were in need of support services. Two of the eight individuals are currently in the process of receiving housing through Healthcare for the Homeless. Four of the eight individuals were provided provisions, healthcare products and support resources.
- In November, Detective L. Neil received a phone call from a victim whose residence had been burglarized. Multiple items had been taken from his residence including two handguns, a laptop, movies, DVDs, cell phones and other items. The victim located his laptop through an online sales application and made a deal with the seller to buy it back for $250. They were to meet in a parking lot to complete the transaction. Detective L. Neil and other Northeast Impact detectives surrounded the area in an undercover capacity and waited for the seller to meet the victim. As the male subject started to approach the victim with the laptop in hand, detectives made the arrest without incident. The suspect also had one of the victim's stolen handguns on him. The laptop and handgun were returned to the victim as well as other items that the seller agreed to give back to the victim. The male subject was arrested for 13 counts of receiving stolen property and nine outstanding felony warrants for his arrest.

- In November, Detective J. Carter was working an automobile burglary, residential burglary, automobile theft, fraud and forgery ring. The offenders were burglarizing vehicles, taking the victims' residential information along with their keys or garage openers and immediately going to their residences. The offenders would then burglarize the victim's residence and steal any vehicles on the property and use them to commit other crimes. The offenders would also use the victim's credit cards and checks. Six search warrants were executed with approximately $40,000 worth of stolen property recovered, as well as a $40,000 vehicle. Detective J. Carter identified 30 additional victims and recovered $6,200 in stolen checks and approximately $2,000 worth of jewelry. Three offenders were identified and arrested.
- On November 28, Officers J. Burley and J. Hill responded to a subject attempting to cash two forged checks. The offender presented an identification and school card but the financial institution would not cash the checks after contacting the owner of the checks to confirm their legitimacy. It was determined the offender forged the signature on the checks. The subject left the scene leaving his identification card. Officers located the subject nearby and he was placed under arrest and charged with forgery and receiving stolen property.
- On November 25, Officer J. Montano was on patrol when he heard an armed robbery call being dispatched. Officer Montano spotted the car and observed the driver throwing black clothing out the window. Officer Montano followed the offender to his residence where a felony stop was conducted. The offender was taken into custody. After talking to the Robbery Unit, it was learned that the offender was a convicted felon and had committed several other armed robberies during the last month.
- On November 18, Officer Johnson received information from United States marshals that a suspect who had an active federal felony warrant for drug trafficking was at a local hospital. Officer Johnson made contact with hospital personnel who advised him the suspect had been discharged. Officer Johnson obtained the suspect's home address and Officers Johnson, Thompson, Denerstein and Schmelzer located the suspect and took him into custody without incident.

Foothills Area Command...

- On November 24, Officers Thomas and Hollier were dispatched to a male subject who was highly intoxicated and attempting to gain entry into an occupied residence. The offender had broken out a window and when confronted by the homeowners, threatened them with a piece of broken glass. The offender was still on the property upon the officers' arrival. He was arrested and booked into the Metropolitan Detention Center without further incident.
- On November 14, Officers Adams and McDonnell were dispatched to a domestic dispute where a boyfriend was refusing to leave. Officers arrived and contacted the reporting party and were advised the subject had left. Officers checked the area and located the male. Dispatch notified officers that the same male had reportedly stabbed someone in another area command. Southeast Area Command units conduct a welfare check on the address and found a deceased male with multiple stab wounds. The offender was booked into the Metropolitan Detention Center for homicide.
- On November 28, Officers C. Adams and J. McDonnell were dispatched to a missing juvenile who had run away from home and was staying with her boyfriend. Officers ran both subjects through the National Crime Information Center (NCIC) and found the boyfriend to have two outstanding felony warrants. Contact was made with the male and he was taken into custody for the warrants. The female juvenile attempted to leave the scene and spit on the officers when they detained her. She was arrested and booked into the Juvenile Detention Center.
- On November 7, Officer L. Garcia responded to a theft at a local store that escalated into an aggravated assault with a deadly weapon. The subject fled prior to his arrival but through investigation, Officer Garcia was able to identify the subject resulting in a warrant being issued for his arrest.
- On November 27, Officer G. Doose was dispatched to a domestic violence call. A female juvenile had just been released from the Juvenile Detention Center and was causing a disturbance with other family members. The parents reported that the daughter was armed with a knife inside her bedroom. Officers arrived on

- scene and safely got the juvenile into custody. On November 27, Officers J. Mares and G. Doose were dispatched to a suicide call. The comments on the call stated that a male subject was locked inside his garage with a vehicle running. Upon arrival, officers could hear a vehicle running inside the garage but the door was locked. There was no response after knocking on the door. Officer Doose forced entry into the garage and located the male subject unconscious inside the garage on a couch. Rescue was immediately summoned and tended to the male. The subject was transported to the hospital with non-life threatening injuries.
- On November 9, Recruit Officer Duda and Field Training Officer Daffron were dispatched to a domestic violence incident. Through the course of the investigation, the officers determined the victim had been forced to ingest alcohol, raped, beaten to the point of unconsciousness and held against his will by his ex-boyfriend. The victim was able to get away and drive to the Foothills Substation. The offender was identified and booked into Metropolitan Detention Center for criminal sexual penetration, kidnapping and domestic violence.

FIELD SERVICES BUREAU-WEST Valley Area Command...

- On November 4, Officers L. Perez and F. Tafoya were dispatched to a disturbance call. Upon arrival, officers attempted to speak with the woman causing the disturbance but she was not compliant and walked away. Officers continued to attempt communication with the woman, at which point she picked up a landscaping brick. Officers gave the woman orders to drop the brick and she eventually dropped it. After 18 minutes of speaking with her and de-escalating the situation, officers took the woman into custody. She was booked on felony charges, as well as an outstanding felony warrant for her arrest.
- On November 1, Officers B. Aragon and D. Shrouf responded to an auto burglary in progress at a parking structure. The offenders fled on foot after one subject attempted to harm a security guard with a hatchet. Officer Aragon arrived and observed one offender fleeing. He chased the offender and got him into custody with the help of Officer Shrouf. The subject was charged with aggravated assault with a deadly weapon and auto burglary.
- On November 19, Officer C. Willsey was dispatched on a welfare check. When he arrived, he met with the caller who was concerned that her mother was diabetic and had not been heard from in over a day. Officer Willsey attempted to locate an open door or window but was unsuccessful. He questioned numerous neighbors to see if anyone had seen the mother, but no one had. He then contacted apartment management who agreed to send someone to unlock the door, but they were unsure how quickly they could get there. Based on the circumstances, Officer Willsey forced entry into the home and found the mother face down on the floor next to her bed barely conscious. He was able to wake her briefly and communicate with her until rescue arrived. Later it was found that the female had a diabetic related issue and kidney failure.
- On November 5, Officers E. Martinez and B. Sanchez were dispatched to a domestic dispute. While in route, officers learned the male involved in the dispute was now armed with a large knife. Both officers arrived on scene and spoke with the male offender's stepfather. Officers learned the male had threatened to kill the stepfather with the knife. Other officers began arriving on scene to assist. Officer Sanchez conducted a welfare check on the remaining people inside the home. Once inside, a female told Officer Sanchez that she believed the offender had left out the back door/window. Officer Sanchez began clearing the home and located the male. He was armed with a knife and went into a closet and threatened to kill himself. Both Officers Sanchez and Martinez worked together and spoke with the male through the closet door for approximately one and a half hours. They finally convinced the male to exit without the knife and he was taken into custody without incident. The male was arrested on multiple felony domestic violence charges.
- On November 22, Valley day shift officers responded to a local community center in response to a "shots fired" call. While officers were in route, dispatch received another call regarding a male who was lying on the sidewalk. As officers arrived it was discovered the male had been shot. Officers established a perimeter and canvassed for witnesses. Photographs of a fleeing vehicle were obtained from a witness that showed a clear image of the license plate. The information gathered led to the suspect being identified and quickly apprehended and arrested.
- On November 14, Officer N. Endres was dispatched to a disturbance. A male subject reportedly threw a brick through the window of a passing vehicle striking the passenger. The passenger sustained several lacerations and a swollen eye prompting a felony charge. With the assistance of Officer C. Carter, Officer Endres was able to identify the alleged offender. The alleged offender knew the passenger and was upset over a dispute regarding his repossessed vehicle. The officers located the alleged offender using police databases and, within minutes, he was taken into custody.

- On November 21, Officer C. Crook was dispatched to a stolen vehicle. The victim advised she observed her stolen vehicle and began following it. Officers saturated the area and a felony stop was attempted. The driver of the vehicle fled on foot but the passenger was taken into custody. A perimeter was established and, with the assistance of a K-9 unit, the male subject was caught hiding in a trash dumpster outside a residence. The male subject was taken into custody.

Southwest Area Command...

- On November 17, Officer E. Nagy was dispatched to a vehicle that had just been stolen. The caller advised the vehicle had been left running to warm up when it was taken. While in route, Officer Nagy heard a dispatch of an accident with injuries involving a vehicle matching the description of the stolen vehicle. Officers determined it was the same vehicle. The driver of the vehicle was found to have two felony warrants. He was booked into the Metropolitan Detention Center.
- On November 13, Officers Apodaca and Baca responded to a domestic violence call. Their investigation resulted in a felony warrant being issued for kidnapping and aggravated assault charges. During the investigation, officers discovered five juveniles (the children of the victim) ranging in age from 6 months to 9 years of age had been left alone in unsafe living conditions. Officers placed a 48-hour safety hold on the children and turned them in to the Children, Youth, and Families Department (CYFD).
- On November 28, Officers Martinez, Chavez and Heitzman responded to a residential burglary in progress. They quickly established a perimeter and took the offender into custody.
- On November 15, Officer Lujan was flagged down by a male subject stating he witnessed a hit and run accident. The witness stated he observed a male subject run from a parked vehicle into a nearby field. Officer Lujan had dispatch run the plate on the parked vehicle and it came back as stolen. Several Southwest officers, Sergeant Garcia, and the Bernalillo County Sheriff's Office established a perimeter around the field. A K-9 unit conducted a search and located the offender. He was taken into custody.

- On November 9, Officer D. Hinson was on patrol when he observed a large roll of carpet blocking the lane he was traveling in. He engaged his emergency equipment and stopped. He moved the roll of carpet from the roadway to a safe location in the left hand shoulder. It was possible that if Officer Hinson had not removed the carpet, it could have caused a major accident on the interstate.
- On November 20, Officer S. Arias responded to a robbery call at a local restaurant. This was the second robbery call at the business in the same day. Officer Arias responded and located a male subject matching the description near the restaurant. The subject was taken into custody and through witnesses, it was determined the male was the offender of the first robbery earlier in the day.
- On November 22, Officer D. Nix was patrolling when he observed a suspicious vehicle parked in a back lot. Dispatch advised the vehicle was reported stolen. Officer Nix noticed the vehicle brake lights power on and observed two subjects seated inside the vehicle. As other units arrived, a felony high risk was executed and both occupants followed officers' commands. One of the subjects was arrested for unlawfully taking his step-father's vehicle without permission. He was booked into the Juvenile Detention Center without incident.

Northwest Area Command...

- On November 25, Officers Nakamura and Franklin caught and arrested a female who had been going to hospitals and using fake names in an attempt to secure pain medications.
- On November 10, Officer Perea discovered a male shooting up heroin in a restaurant parking lot. The investigation led to his arrest for possession of heroin and crack cocaine, and receiving and transferring a stolen motor vehicle.
- On November 14, Officers K. Riley and M. Werner were dispatched to a male subject shooting a gun and seen yelling at a female.

Upon arrival, officers made contact with the female who stated the male was her ex-boyfriend. The female stated he arrived at her home intoxicated and wanted to talk to her but she refused. He was sitting in his car and exited the vehicle carrying a black handgun. The female saw the gun and began to walk away when she heard a gunshot. She thought he was going to kill her so she fled the area. Officers attempted to contact the suspect via telephone but he became verbally combative. He stated that he was going back to his ex-girlfriend's house and there was nothing the police could do. Officer Riley then coordinated with the Northwest Impact and Investigative Support Unit (ISU) and obtained an arrest warrant for the suspect. ISU followed the suspect to an apartment complex where he barricaded himself inside. SWAT was notified and assisted with the call. The suspect attempted to tunnel through a different apartment and flee the area but was apprehended by officers. The suspect had violated an active restraining order. He was arrested on several felony charges.

- On November 11, Officer A. Hoisington worked with the Board of Pharmacy in response to a female repeatedly using forged prescriptions to steal narcotics and possibly involved in a forgery ring. Officer Hoisington was notified that the female was going to a pharmacy in an attempt to fill a prescription. Officer Hoisington waited in the area and made contact with the female and another male. The case was handed over to federal authorities for prosecution and arrest.
- On November 19, Impact Detectives conducted a bait car operation near a busy store. During the operation, four stolen vehicles were recovered and one suspect was arrested for unlawful taking of a motor vehicle.
- In November, detectives received notification of a victim tracking his stolen global position system (GPS) watch. Detectives worked in conjunction with the victim and located the watch's current address. Detectives conducted surveillance on the address and located an occupied stolen vehicle parked out front. Detectives conducted a stop on the stolen car and took both occupants into custody. The victim's GPS watch was recovered along with several additional stolen items.

Year-To-Date Comparison

Monthly Comparison

3-Month Comparison

% change is based upon the 2016 time-frame compared to the average of the previous 3 years for the same time-frame. The green represents numbers that are highly statistically significant. It denotes that there were less than average incidents of the particular crime. The amount is over 2 standard deviations away from the mean (toward the far outer portion of the tails of a bell-shaped curve). The yellow represents numbers that are highly statistically significant. It denotes that there were more than average incidents of the particular crime. The amount is over 2 standard deviations away from the mean (toward the far outer portion of the tails of a bell-shaped curve). This data was prepared by the Crime Analysis Unit of the Real Time Crime Center. Contact Sarah Massek at 788-4822 or smassek@cabq.gov for further information or questions.
