- Recruitment

There is a class that is graduating in February. The next class has 34 seated so far, and 20 in the lateral class.

APD has started a “You” campaign for recruiting to start reaching out to wider crowds. Will be filming officers who have had difficult backgrounds talk about how they were able to do it.

Q: To apply to become an officer doesn't need a degree, just a high school diploma?

A: Correct. They just need the basic skills to become a cop. When we get applicants, they have to take a couple of test to make sure they are qualified.

c. Community Outreach

To increase outreach with the younger community, the foothills cpc has made a recommendation that an officer attend a school function and give a certification to the student.

El Dorado High School started a grant to start peer to peer and that grand has expanded to all high schools and we are working to expand to middle schools. APD is working closely with APS.

- Coffee with a cop January 25th at the Donut Mart

Q: If there isn't a trespassing sign on your property can someone set up a tent?

A: No, we can remove them but having a sign is recommended.

Q: How many porch pirates have been caught?

A: Sergeant Bailey would be the person to answer that.

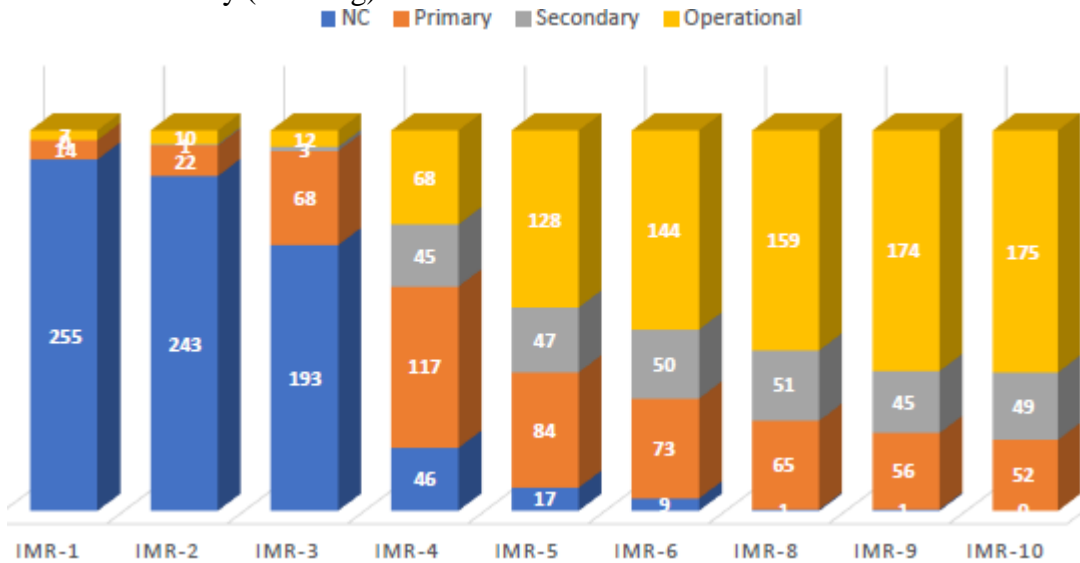

d. Commander Middleton – IMR-10 update

- There are 16 cops in the Internal Affairs Force Division
- This division takes all evidence, evaluates and make a conclusion. No opinion is made until the investigation is completed.

In 2020, so far there are 6 misconducts.

- There are 344 paragraphs, 276 paragraphs are measurable for compliance
- 3 Levels of Compliance: Primary, Secondary, and Operational
- Primary (Policy & Procedures): 100%
- Secondary (Training): 81%
- Operational (Day-to-Day Operations): 64%

Q: How long before you see the culture change?

A: The only time you will see a change is when you get rid of the people and get new people. One way or another there will be a cultural change.

Chair Eric: Will be re-attending the Citizen's Police Academy, he thinks it is a great way to learn about the police department.
