I believe everyone is aware that the pilot program with the new University Area Command is in full effect. Bringing in additional personnel and supervisors to focus on both the east and west side of the Southeast is already paying dividends. We are seeing more proactive felony arrests, quicker response times to calls for service, and more meaningful community engagement for both sides of the Southeast Heights.

Talking about our community engagement, I am proud that we have received a lot of support to really engage with the youth in our community. Partnering up with great stakeholders and faith based organizations to really get meaningful interactions with our youth and the community.

As a department we are taking a stance against properties that are a nuisance to the community and that engage in criminal activity. The property at 7817 Central Ave. is a prime example of a business that engages in criminal activity and is a nuisance to the surrounding businesses and community. We have filed in court to shut them down, and eliminate this anchor of crime in our community.

Your officers continue to work extremely hard, balancing calls for service, proactive policing to reduce crime, and community engagement.

University Area Command
Message for Deputy Commander Del Greco

As we close the first month in the University Area Command I would like to give you a few updates on some progress being made.

The University Area Command, which spans from San Mateo west to I-25 and I-40 to Mesa Del Sol, began full operation February 11, 2023. In the near month the officers in the area command have been working hard to reduce crime and improve call response times. Since February 11, officers in the University Area Command have taken nearly 2,000 calls for service, issued over 200 traffic citations, and have made nearly 40 felony arrests. Officers continue to work on identifying crime hotspots and evolving trends to ensure we are as proactive as possible. I look forward to the months ahead to meet with those who work and live in the University Area Command to establish relationships so APD can accurately and effectively meet the needs of the area command. Feel free to email me with suggestions or meeting requests at rdelgreco@cabq.gov

Crime Prevention through Environmental Design

Laura Kuehn, NCPS, ICPS, Senior Crime Prevention Specialist

Spring is a wonderful time to get back outside, work on some landscaping or other home improvement projects. It's also a great time to do a self-assessment on home security. The Home Security Checklist developed by the National Crime Prevention Council and included in this newsletter can help you do just that; or our Crime Prevention Team is available to survey your property and provide you with recommendations as well.

Our team uses Crime Prevention through Environmental Design as a model for our assessments.

Crime Prevention through Environmental Design (CPTED) advocates that the effective use of the built environment can lead to a reduction in crime and improve the quality of life for neighborhoods. CPTED is a successful strategy that can be applied to business, industry, residential and public properties.

The following components encompass a holistic CPTED approach to design:

Natural Surveillance: The ability to see and be seen – visibility.

Access Control: Placement of physical barriers, limited entrances/exits, and locks make it more difficult for a potential offender to commit a crime.

Territorial Reinforcement: Creates a sense of ownership and empowerment by members of a community to monitor their neighborhood and protect their space.

Maintenance: A well maintained space shows ownership and will attract legitimate, law abiding users.

If you would like a CPTED survey of your business or residential property please call the Southeast Area Command and speak with Laura Kuehn, Senior Crime Prevention, (505) 768-2006 or lkuehn@cabq.gov

Home Security Checklist

Boxes marked “NO” indicate areas where you could take action to improve your home security. These are just some of the steps you can take to decrease the likelihood that you or your home is targeted.

Exterior Doors

- ◆ Doors are solid hardwood or metal-clad. YES NO
- ◆ Doors feature wide-angle peepholes at the height everyone can use. YES NO

- ◆ All entryways have a working, keyed entry lock and sturdy deadbolt lock installed into the frame of the door. YES NO
- ◆ Spare keys are kept with a trusted neighbor, not under a doormat or planter, on a ledge, or in the mailbox. YES NO

Garage and Sliding Door Security

- ◆ The door leading from the attached garage to the house is solid wood or metal-clad and protected with a quality keyed door lock and deadbolt. YES NO
- ◆ The overhead garage door has a lock so that we do not rely solely on the automatic door opener to provide security. YES NO
- ◆ Garage doors are all locked when leaving the house. YES NO
- ◆ The sliding glass door is locked when leaving the house. YES NO

Protecting Windows

- ◆ Every window in the house has a working key lock or is securely pinned. YES

- ◆ Bikes are always locked, even if we leave them for just a minute. YES NO
