			Bloomberg Finance L.P. shall maintain and keep the equipment in good working order and condition so that it will perform its functions satisfactorily. COA shall be responsible for safekeeping of the equipment from the time it is received. Access to real-time market trading activity provides a current, constantly updated view of securities prices, and ensures that broker bid & offer prices are reasonable. Availability of real-time trading from the Bloomberg platform permits prompt access to a desired security/price. Access to complete broker inventories and new issue list provides more investment choices. 311 Workforce Management Software (Charles E.H. Cowen), $47,334.00 Purchase of a workforce management software for the 311 Contact Center. This software is a necessity for any call center to ensure that the center is staffed properly and to ensure that the staff is working at maximum capacity during the call centers hours of operation. This is critical to ensure that service levels are met. Citizen satisfaction will increase by serving the citizens more efficiently in a timely manner. Included in the quote is onsite training. Software maintenance is included in the monthly/annual license fee. Training including travel and expenses is $18350.00. The monthly license fee is $1,632.00 Billed annually at $19,584.00 with a 3 year commitment. Installation fee is $9,400.00. Please see attached statement of work for the city's responsibilities regarding the resources needed to assist with the installation of this software software.
