BIO:

Sarah Beasley has over 20 years of professional experience, including management, conflict resolution, personnel and human resources issues, as well as considerate knowledge in regulatory and legal analysis and its lawful application.

I am currently finishing up a two-year term with the City Personnel Board and am employed and a claims litigation specialist.

Married to a blue-collar worker for 11 years, I hold great insight into the concerns, difficulties, and issues members of the workforce experience on a daily basis. As a voting member of the Albuquerque Personnel Board, I pledge that I will continue to keep an open mind, committed to hearing all sides to every case that comes before the board.
