

Andres Lopez

Emotions Through a Mirror

La Cueva High School, Grade 10

Digital Photography

Artist Statement

I made this photo because I wanted to show through a photo my feelings and probably feelings of many others out there while stuck at home during quarantine and the frustration that comes with it. I left the shower running hot so that it would steam up the bathroom and wiped part of it off to seem more dramatic.